RODEO COMING

... Dave Raymer and Ron Lauder were busy working on the bleachers Monday evening in preparation for St. Albert Kinsmen Rodeo 117. The Rodeo, being held at the new grounds on Riel Drive, goes June 16, 17 and 18 and is billed as the eighth largest in Canada.

Carma Bylaw: back to the drawing board

The presence of the Woodlands Carma project on the city council agenda has become a predictable matter, and Monday night's meeting was no exception.

Ald. Liesbeth Bakker launched this week's discussion of the development by moving to rescind second reading of Bylaw 21/78, the bylaw to rezone the area. Mrs. Bakker said that she had examined the Planning Act, and believed that the city should readvertise the bylaw as "the advertisement used did not reflect the product being sold." She stated that the bylaw as previously advertised did not reflect the amended residential zoning which refers to reduced lot widths. Mrs. Bakker said the advertisement could be run correctly after the rescinding of second reading.

Ald. Margaret Smith said she would not support the motion, as she did not approve of the zoning amendments which had been made in the Woodlands Carma development. She said the amendments should not have been made in the way they were, and that they could be considered precedent setting and a "wedge that might begin to change the shape of the city." She said the changes should be made after thorough discussion, not by rezoning 98 lots. Instead of rescinding second reading she proposed deleting that section of the bylaw which pertained to lots of reduced size.

Ald. Shields said he opposed the motion to rescind and said new information had come to light. Acting on information from a resident, Mr. Shields said he had discovered that Carma had already hooked up to city services, before the bylaw had received third reading. Mr. Shields termed this "presumption" on the part of Carma.

"I think we're losing control," said Mr. Shields. "We're being thrust into the role of rubber stamp."

Mr. Shields asked if authorization for the hook-up had come from the mayor's office. He received a negative response from Mayor Harvey.

Mr. Shields went on to say the city engineer had not authorized the action. He also agreed with Mrs. Smith's contention that the allowance of smaller lot size constituted an amendment of the city's zoning bylaw which could result in lowered city standards.

Safeway to locate in Abacus Centre

Abacus Cities Ltd. have announced that negotiations have been concluded with Canada Safeway to include a 40,400 square foot supermarket in the $19 million St. Albert Shopping Centre now under development in St. Albert, Alberta. The centre, located approximately seven miles from Edmonton, is a joint venture of Abacus and The Hudson's Bay Company.

Derek T. Payne, manager of Commercial Development for the Abacus' Northern Alberta Division, said "This will provide the centre with the largest and most up-to-date Safeway supermarket in the Province. It will include an in-store bakery and as a first for Safeway, a cheese centre." The Safeway supermarket will also provide parcel pickup facilities for grocery shoppers.

With the addition, St. Albert Shopping Centre now includes an 83,000 square foot Bay Department store; Woolco department store of 103,000 square feet, Safeway supermarket 40,400 square feet; and 85,000 square feet of retail mall area to accommodate up to an addi-

Rafters rev up for big race!

Last year about this time, a flotilla of rafts took to the Sturgeon River for St. Albert's First Annual Raft Race. This year the scene will be repeated for hardy local raftsmen on June 17, at the exhilarating hour of 7:30 a.m.!

This year's raft adventure starts at the Cunningham

Bridge and will end at the Bruin Inn. Last year, Bob Miller and sons emerged the victors, but this year's race is very much up for grabs. The Millers will be on hand to defend their title.

Usher property:

Bylaw gets first reading; residents to meet planners

The Sturgeon Action Committee lost its bid Monday night to have a rezoning bylaw rejected or tabled by city council. The proposed bylaw would rezone the Usher property on the west side of the St. Albert Trail behind the United Church from residential to general commercial. However, while giving first reading to the controversial bylaw, council passed a motion delaying second and third reading until June 19 or until city staff has met with the residents committee and come back with a report. The motion, which will give the residents some time to marshal their arguments, was made by Ald. Liesbeth Bakker and amended by Ald. Rod Thordson.

In a petition stating their opposition to the proposed rezoning, the residents committee said they feel that the move would reflect "strip commercialism" which they described as "an antiquated form of development in that it leads to problems of congestion, it becomes an eyesore, and eventually leads to ghetto-style living for the immediate vicinity." The petition stated the committee's belief that no further development should occur on the west side of the St. Albert Trail until "adequate planning" has taken place regarding noise pollution, environmental impact and safety factors. The group is opposed to widening the St. Albert Trail to six lanes, a spectre raised by a city application to the Province requesting "corridor status" for the road through St. Albert.

Discussion of the matter got rolling with a presentation by local solicitor Dick Fowler, representing residents in the Green Grove area next to the proposed development. Mr. Fowler stated that residents in this area were not opposed to the development but wanted conditions to be met should the area be rezoned. These three terms included a restriction to "high class non-retail" developments, said Mr. Fowler, which should not exceed two storeys. The residents also ask that the aesthetics of the area be protected on the north and west boundaries by the use of fencing and mature trees.

Sturgeon Action Committee Chairman Bob Hite told council that the committee was basically opposed to spot zoning, particularly in this area as it would be premature and jeopardize available options. He pointed out the necessity for access roads, citing statistics on accidents resulting from turning and rear ending. Mr. Hite said that "blockbusting" was already occurring in the Sturgeon area, particularly along Scarboro Place and Spruce Crescent. Mr. Hite explained that by this process, real estate companies buy up residential properties without intent to re-sell, and allow them to deteriorate, in order to force others in the neighbourhood to put their own places up for sale.

WORK WITH CITY PLANNERS

Mr. Hite told council that the committee would like to work on the planning of the area with members of the City Planning Department. He stated that the group would prefer to work directly with city planners. However he felt the group required their own consultant to work with city planners and the city consultant (on the Ball Estate Design Brief).

Council pays rain insurance

City council moved Monday night to pay a $750 premium for rain insurance for the Kinsmen Rodeo. However, one clause in the insurance quotation caused some consternation. A tenth of an inch has to fall before a claim can be made. According to the terms, the rainfall reading would be taken from the nearest weather station. However, it was pointed out that the rainfall at the nearest weather station might not be the same as rainfall in St. Albert. After some lighthearted suggestions as to how rainfall could be measured, it was decided to pay the premium and ask if the weather station clause could be re-negotiated.

Council gave second and third readings to four bylaws authorizing the issuance of debentures for the purpose of constructing water mains, storm sewer mains, sanitary sewer mains and power Please Turn to Page 2 his disagreement with this opinion, and remarked that the zoning bylaw is amended every time the city rezones.

Ald. Rod Thronson and Mayor Ronald Harvey supported the motion to rescind. The motion to rescind second reading carried.

Mrs. Bakker closed this week's installment of the Carma Woodlands discussion with the comment that Carma should be commended for providing quality housing on smaller lots.

"Usually it takes a lot of government money to encourage this kind of development," said Mrs. Bakker.

In reference to the matter of Carma tying into city services, Ald. Shields then moved that staff report to council by confidential memo as to who authorized Carma to hook into the sanitary sewer. This prompted comment from Ald. Ayotte, who said he could see frustrations on both sides. He said it takes a lot of time to get raw land on the market and referred to the small amount of developable land that remains in the city. He also stated that utilities had been geared to a certain growth rate. He said the cost of delay ultimately comes out of the taxpayers pocket and speculated that there will be no lots for sale in St. Albert next spring if development is not speeded up.

Mr. Shield's motion carried.

Ald. Bakker then moved that a public hearing be scheduled for June 19 for the rezoning bylaw with the appropriate advertising. This motion carried. She also moved that copies of the bylaw and sketch be mailed to assessed owners within 200 feet of the development. This was amended to read that the advertisement and sketch, and not the bylaw be sent to the homeowners. The motion carried.

A request by Qualico developments to strip topsoil in the Woodlands area adjacent to Akinsdale was granted. Because of the method used, the company asked permission before third reading of the Qualico rezoning bylaw, as time is an important factor.

Council approved a recommendation that the Director of Planning be appointed Development Officer to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Development Control Officer Terry Topolnitsky. The director of planning is also authorized to delegate the powers of the development control officer to a member of his department as he sees fit. Ald. Liesbeth Bakker protested this method of appointment, saying, council would never get to appoint the development control officer. However, the motion carried.

Perron St. scene of murder-suicide

Dixie Roma Benton (42 years) and her estranged husband Lincoln Benton (42 years), both died from rifle bullets Monday afternoon in an upstairs office in the Imperial Lumber building on Perron Street.

A telephone call brought several members of the St. Albert R.C.M.P. detachment to the scene and Perron Street was rapidly blocked off from Churchill to St. Anne as the police donned bullet-proof vests and checked their weapons before preparing to enter the building.

Meanwhile a crowd of workers and shoppers on Perron and St. Anne gathered on the street corners and it was at first thought that the Lumber store was experiencing an armed robbery. A bystander commented as the police were preparing to enter with their guns - "Those poor devils never know when they're going to have to put their lives on the line at a moment's notice."

According to the police, Lincoln Benton entered the premises at rifle point. Benton then barricaded himself and his wife in a second floor office. When police forced their way into the office at about 3:30, they found both parties dead.

"It is apparent" they said, "that Benton shot his wife three times, wounding her fatally, and then turned the gun (a .22 calibre) on himself." According to the police, both were residents of St. Albert.

On May 5 of this year, Lincoln Benton had been charged with attempted murder of his wife. He was remanded in custody until May 17. Then he was released in Provincial Court on bail of $5,000 until June 7, when his case was to be heard. He was released despite Crown Council's objection.

The bizarre tragedy brought a flood of publicity from local and national media with many conflicting reports circulating among the general public.

Pool pass plan flounders

The user-pay concept in city swimming pools came under fire at Monday night's meeting of city council. The discussion centered around the Grosvenor outdoor pool.

Mrs. Dineke Taylor and Mrs. Johnson asked council if the family pass program for admission charge could be re-instated. At present, users of the city's pools pay 45 cents a swim, or 33 cents a swim if they purchase books of tickets. However, ticket books are not yet available. Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Johnson said the problem arose when their children wished to visit the pool several times daily. Under the former system, the swimmers could go in and out as many times as they liked on the same pass. Family passes formerly cost $40., and individuals passes cost $8.50.

Ald. Breadner told the delegation that the city was moving toward a user pay approach. He said he could support a pass concept, but only if it was near the 33 cents per swim figure. He said this could result in passes costing nearly $100 for a family, due to increased operational costs.

Ald. Liesbeth Bakker said she did not feel that the user pay plan should have been inaugurated without public discussion. She said that although she supported user fees, she thought the pass system should have been retained.

Ald. Roger Ayotte said that the 33 cent price was not expensive, and commented that the back-and-forth-to-the-pool problem only affected those who lived nearby. He said the user pay concept would show its value in other facilities such as racquetball courts. Ald. Margaret Smith said the concept answered the need for a method which gives a price reduction for bulk use, but which can be used all year around, at indoor pool facilities.

Ald. Liesbeth Bakker moved that $10 swim passes be made available by June 15. However, this price was termed "totally unrealistic" by Mrs. Smith, and Mr.

Breadner calculated that this price would mean people were paying only 13 cents per swim. Mr. Ayotte said the present system provided "one of the best bargains around."

Mrs. Bakker's motion went down to defeat. However, she then moved that trimester swim passes be initiated. This motion was moved tabled by Ald. Breadner. The motion to table carried.

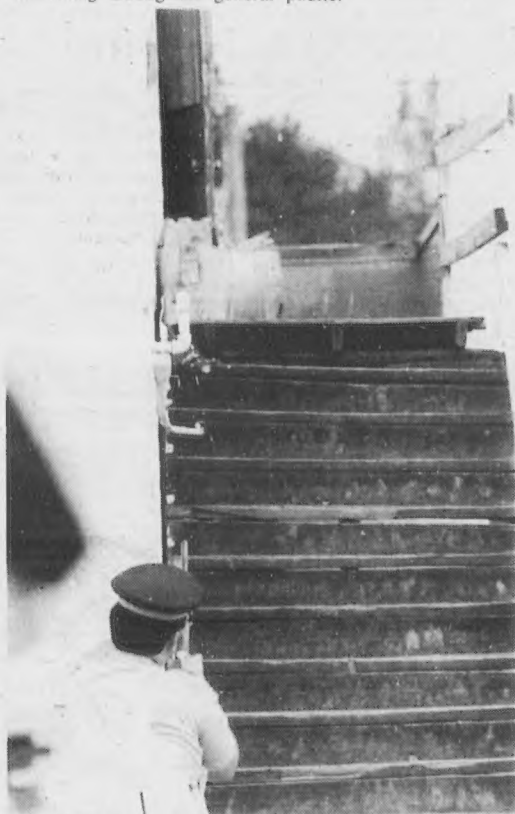

Shields protests absence of staff

The presence (or absence) of city staff at public meetings was the subject of a brief but spirited discussion at city council Monday night. The subject arose during discussion of recent meetings of the Sturgeon Action Committee concerning the proposed widening of highway two through St. Albert. The committee appeared at the meeting to state their opposition to further development on the west side of the St. Albert Trail.

Ald. Bill Shields expressed concern in regard to the May 26 meeting of the action committee. He said he had told the committee at the meeting that he thought they lacked information and said he would arrange for city staff to attend the June 1 meeting of the group. He said he had obtained the authorization of the City Administrator's office for technical staff to attend. However, when the meeting was held, staff were not in attendance. Mr. Shields said he was "disappointed" and said the decision not to have staff present infringed on the people's right to get information. He also questioned the machinery involved in the granting of aldermanic requests.

Mayor Ronald Harvey stated he had thought political issues were involved and had decided not to subject staff to public meetings unless council as a

Flare scare at Sandy Lake

Two St. Albert residents swimming at the south end of Sandy Lake west of Morinville discovered a floating metal object and touched off an afternoon bomb scare.

The object about 20" x 3" looked like a small propane tank and bore the message 'Dangerous Material - contact police or military'. It also had a two position lever set on 'arm'.

Mark Bolduc and Sue La France reported the finding to Morinville RCMP who arrived on the scene shortly. They in turn contacted the Armed Forces but after five hours during which the object lay in the sand they reluctantly rolled it onto a blanket and transferred to the trunk of their car.

Disposal was made at the Cardiff landfill site.

It turned out that the object was a bouy flare used by the Armed Forces in training and was the first of two found so far. The second was found Monday night.

The Armed Forces have restricted use of the bouy flares to Cold Lake as a result and advise people to turn any flares they come across over to the RCMP.

Georges Bugnet receives honorary degree from university at convocation in Legal

At a convocation held in St. Emile's Church in Legal, Alberta, Mr. Georges Bugnet received an Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws on Saturday, June 3 at the age of 99 years. It was the first time the University of Alberta has taken the ceremony to the recipient, and the university people involved were warm in their praise of the "wonderful co-operation we received from the community." Father Lavasseur, the matron at Chateau Sturgeon, the mayor and his staff and council, the women who prepared the lunch - everyone was just tremendous - said a member of the university staff. About 200 people attended the convocation.

Chancellor R. N. Dalby was accompanied by a large group from the academic community of the university, including the vice-president, academic, Dr. Myer Horowitz; Mr. Eric Geddes, chairman of the Board of Governors; Dr. Edward D. Blodgett, chairman, Department of Comparative Literature, who nominated Mr. Bugnet for the degree, and introduced him in French at the Convocation; Dr. Henry Kreisel, University Professor; Dr. Louis Desrochers, former Chancellor who received his honorary degree May 30, Doctor of Laws; Mr. A. D. Cairns, registrar of the university, and others.

The Hon. Horst Schmid, minister of Culture, represented the Provincial Government and other special guests included Bishop Raymond Roy of St. Paul, Father Georges H. Primeau of Morinville, Father Diel of Vimy, Reeve Bill Flynn, MD Sturgeon, Mayor Art Stapleton of Morinville. Greetings were also received from Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau and Premier Peter Lougheed, via the university. Also present for this particularly special occasion were all of Mr. Bugnet's 10 children.

BOTH WRITER AND HORTICULTURIST

The framed Certificate stated that the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred on Georges Bugnet "In recognition of his contribution to the life and letters of Alberta and Canada" to cover his many outstanding accomplishments as a novelist, horticulturist, poet and school trustee.

The front of the church was cleared and the area set up with the traditional chairs brought from the University, and the Convocation proceeded formally just as it would be at the University, complete with Mace and robes. Following O'Canada and the Invocation by Father Lavasseur, Dr. Horowitz expressed for the university its pleasure in bringing the Convocation to Legal.

The degree was conferred on Mr. Bugnet by the Chancellor and Dr. Blodgett, who had proposed Mr. Bugnet to the University Senate and nominated him for the degree, had the responsibility to present the new degree recipient to the Chancellor.

In explaining his reason for proposing Mr. Bugnet, Dr. Blodgett spoke of the fine contribution Mr. Bugnet had made to French Canadian literature to the West and to Canada. He referred to his tremendous work for the French Canadian Association of Alberta, including his service as editor of a weekly newspaper the Association formerly published, called Union. Dr. Blodgett also commended his work in horticulture with pine trees and roses especially. But he emphasized Mr. Bugnet's interest in the work of the French Canadian Association, singling him out as "An example of a particularly fine kind of Canadian Citizen."

Mr. Bugnet has published two novels, La Foret and Nipsya (published in 1924), plus a collection of short stories and poems, the latter being republished in time for launching at his 99th birthday on February 23 of this year.

In 1967 he was awarded a Certificate of Honour by the Western Society of Horticulture. In 1970 he was named Chevalier de L'Ordre des PALMES ACADEMIQUES by the Government of France, and in 1972 he received a Certificate of Achievement Award from the Government for his work both in Literature and Horticulture.

The Hon. Horst Schmid congratulated Mr. Bugnet as a worthy candidate for the Honorary degree, on behalf of the Provincial Government.

Mr. Bugnet who said "I did not ask for this - but it is real nice," spoke for quite a long time on the history of his life, beginning with his decision to leave France for Canada. His interest in growing things and searching for ways to develop roses, shrubs and trees hardly enough for the Alberta climate was life-long, as was his love of writing and the preservation of the French culture, a pursuit he encouraged young people to follow.

Following the ceremony Convocation Tea was hosted by the University at the community hall, prepared and served by women of the community. Mayor Marcel Dube welcomed the University community on behalf of the Village Council, saying "it gives me great pleasure to welcome you into our midst today. The honour of your visit is all the more significant as I believe this is the first time in the history of the University that an honorary degree has been bestowed to anyone in a locality outside the University campus. I'm sure the Village of Legal recognizes this fact. Please Turn to Page 12

Rodeo queen contest: finalists emerge from flurry of femininity

High jinks mixed with high anxiety on Wednesday night as some of St. Albert's loveliest young ladies vied for the coveted positions as finalists in the Kinsmen Rodeo Queen contest. Competition was vigorous as seven girls from the St. Albert and Sturgeon area performed for the enthusiastic audience at the Kinsmen Community Centre. The girls were judged on personality, charm and public relations suitability. Emerging as finalists were Sandra Lemieux, Wanita Kuzio, Laurie Schlereth and Randa Kinney. The queen herself will be chosen during Rodeo Week.

Emcee for the evening was Howie McMartin, who introduced each girl as she performed for the speech portion of the contest. Each girl was asked to state what she thought the city of St. Albert needed most urgently.

First to speak was Karen Curry, a 16 year old grade 10 student at St. Albert High. Miss Curry said she hoped to become a singer, and stated that the city urgently needs a movie theatre to keep teens off the street. Next to handle the speaking chores was Brenda Troughton, a 15 year old student at Sir George Simpson. Brenda hopes to go to University of Alberta, with the goal of teaching kindergarten. She has been involved in the teens and tots program at the school and enjoys baseball, skiing, sailing, bowling and swimming. A seven year resident of St. Albert, Brenda praised the city's rec department and said there was an urgent need for a movie theatre and a campground along the Sturgeon River.

Fourteen year old Randa Kinney, a grade 9 student at Sir George Simpson was next in line, expressing a desire to attend the U of A. Randa enjoys soccer, hockey, softball and water skiing. She plays piano as well as clarinet and French horn in the school band. A regular performer in the music festival, Randa placed first and second in a duet with a friend the last two years. She felt St. Albert could use a motorcycle park, to avoid use of the machines in childrens' play areas as well as a horseback riding academy.

Next to face the audience was Sandra Lemieux, a 16 year old grade 10 student at Sturgeon Composite High School. Sandra hopes to be a journalist. She pointed out that St. Albert could use more recreational and entertainment facilities and stated that a theatre, bowling alleys and more parks would reduce vandalism and give employment opportunities.

Seventeen year old Janet Larsen, a student at Paul Kane stated that she has resided in St. Albert for 11 years and expressed her liking for the city. She spoke of the Teen Centre and the benefits of such organizations for the city.

A grade 9 student at Vincent J. Maloney school, 15 year old Wanita Kuzio enjoys skiing, riding, skating and swimming. She stated that the city needs camping facilities and more access roads to Edmonton.

Laurie Schlereth, a grade 10 student at St. Albert High hopes to work in the air travel industry. A five year resident of St. Albert, Laurie expressed concern over the city's traffic problems, and congratulated those responsible for the upgrading of 170 Street. Laurie has been involved in the Rodeo since she came here and pronounced it an enjoyable experience.

Having made their addresses the girls adjourned to prepare for the talent portion of the program. In the intervals throughout the program the Pitch Band contributed some rousing numbers, with the aid of the Pitch singers.

The audience appeared delighted by the singing and antics provided by the girls in their talent show. The humour went from high to low as various acts performed in the Bong Show, an entertainment needing no further explanation.

Brenda Gray, last year's Rodeo Queen, addressed the group, telling the value of her experience and spoke of the experience she had gained from the radio and TV appearances that highlighted her reign as queen.

Finally the big moment arrived. Judges Alda Myrthue, Donna McMartin, Bob Kirk, Bob Arnold of CJCA and Donnie Ast (Nestor Pistor) had their work cut out for them in arriving at their decision but finally chose the four finalists.

The words of one girl probably summed up the feelings of all the finalists: "I don't believe it! And we had fun!"

Special thanks go to

Rachel Stevenson, who was invaluable to the girls and cheerleader, confidante, and "general handler of last minute crisis."

SHERMAN, Tex. - If Odessa Mae Parish ever takes another driving test, she'll probably go elsewhere to do it.

Mrs. Parish, 72, had completed her driving examination and was about to receive her licence as she pulled into a parking spot at the DPS office.

Mrs. Parish reversed, shifted to a forward gear and then apparently became confused about the functions and placement of the brake and the accelerator pedal. The car jumped the curve and lunged through the plate glass window of the licence office, leaving nine metres of skidmarks on the waxed floor as it plowed through desks, chairs and office materials.

committee at the time of the last municipal election. She quoted the report as saying the residents "would only accept a low profile office building." She pointed out that the proposed development was a "low profile building" and asked why it didn't qualify.

Mr. Hite replied that a lot of time has passed since that report, and that the committee had not realized their options at the time the report was drawn up, referring to increased noise, aesthetic and safety problems.

Ald. Barry Breadner said he was sympathetic with the residents' concerns but said he did not want to "shelve" the project indefinitely. Mr. Hite replied that it was difficult to limit the time required to study the problem.

Ald. Bill Shields echoed Mr. Breadner's concerns, and said they "might back the developer into a position where he might have to withdraw." He commented the developer was a small independent professional businessman who had already spent a lot of money on the project. To this Mr. Hite replied that the interests of the majority were at stake.

Another resident on the committee, Jim Nichols stated that we "fear we won't be able to get a decent lifestyle from our present investment." Mr. Nichols also referred to "intolerable noise levels." He stated it was hard to cross or gain access to the Trail as it is, and said the residents wanted a detailed study done "without hindrance." He also suggested that the highway could eventually be moved onto the undeveloped property west of the highway, and a buffer built. Mrs. Bakker pointed out that this would necessitate the removal of the Club Mocombo and other businesses on the west side of the road.

Scarboro Place resident Al Laplante also expressed a preference for moving the highway west, rather than widening on the east where the private property is fully developed. He stated that some action on this was necessary "now that the east or west by-passes are not happening."

BY-PASS NOT "DEAD"

Mr. Ayotte stated that he was "not at all sure the west by-pass was a dead issue" and said he thought it would become a reality. However, he stated that by the time it is built there will still be enough traffic to necessitate the widening of the Trail. In reference to the proposed Usher property development, Mr. Ayotte said that the project was far enough back from the road to widen the highway without taking out the service road.

The present owner of the property, Mr. Roy Usher, told council he had bought his land 27 years ago, and had seen the City grow from a village. While he said he could appreciate the desire of the residents to protect their quality of life, he stated "anything they do to increase their quality of life will destroy ours." Mr. Usher said the noise levels were incredible at present. He said that if the proposal were turned down he and his wife would suffer more than anyone else.

When it came time for voting on first reading, aldermen agreed that there were, in the words of Ald. Thordson "horrendous problems" with noise and other concerns. However, all agreed that first reading could be given. Ald. Thordson said he would like "to help them work out their own destinies" and also commented that the proposed building, under general commercial, was an improvement over the type of development that could come with a highway commercial designation. He said the development would have no bearing on residents across the road, and would not increase traffic.

Ald. Breadner said he did not know if the city had all the right-of-way it needed. He also said he wanted assurance that there was room to buffer. He stated he wished to check these matters before third reading.

Ald. Margaret Smith pointed out that the city's application for corridor status did not mean that the widening would take place. She told the group the application allowed the city to attain funding for studies on the question. In regard to the Usher property she said that council had to "protect the possibility of widening the road." She said the development was better than other proposals for the west side of the highway. Affirming her support of first reading, she stated she wanted as much input as possible into the decision, which she hoped could be settled by mid-July.

First reading of the bylaw was granted.

Nature prevails, council silenced

The atmosphere was solemn at city council Monday night as residents of the Sturgeon Action Committee appeared before council to state their opposition to further development on the west side of the St. Albert Trail. However, nature intervened and provided a moment of levity in the midst of the serious proceedings.

As Mr. Jim Nichols was describing effects of the constant traffic din on the neighbourhood, a terrific hail storm blew up outside. As Mr. Nichols spoke, the sound of the hail pellets on the roof steadily increased in volume.

"And the noise levels are becoming intolerable," continued Mr. Nichols.

"I beg your pardon?", chorused members of council over the clatter.

Mr. Nichols good-naturedly smiled and gave his voice a temporary rest, as did council, until the main onslaught passed over.

CEMETERY REPAIRED - HEARTS STILL BROKEN

... The scars are still sore from the incident that took place last July, 1977 at the St. Albert Church Cemetery. If you remember, most of the head stones were pushed over and broken (above) but now the stones have been repaired by the owners (below). The St. Albert R.C.M.P. told us that any information that could lead to the prosecution of the persons involved would still be appreciated.

Fire legislation covers only some homes

An open letter from the Fire Chief to the Citizens of St. Albert

The Province of Alberta has enacted legislation which states in part:

Effective July 5, 1977 - All buildings with sleeping accommodation where construction begins after July 5, 1977 must have smoke detectors directly wired into the building's electrical system.

All existing residential accommodation other than one and two family dwellings will require approved smoke detector protection either wired in, plug in or battery powered.

The detectors and alarms must meet standards acceptable to Alberta Labour.

This is obviously a much needed piece of legislation and will help to reduce the number of fatalities attributed to fire.

Unfortunately there will remain a large number of residences not included in this legislation. To these homeowners and tenants I would urge that they seriously consider installing smoke alarms adjacent to sleeping areas.

A smoldering fire in the early hours of the morning can go undetected for a long period of time and in the process generate large amounts of toxic gases. People sleeping are often overcome or become disoriented by these gases and in far too many instances have little chance of survival.

Smoke detectors - one installed on each floor - provide the best protection against fire deaths. The warning of the presence of smoke not only gives people a chance to get out, but also cuts down on actual fire damage due to the earlier discovery of the fire.

Now that approved smoke detectors are easily attainable, there is no reason why every residence should not have at least one.

Pamphlets and information concerning approved smoke detectors are available at the St. Albert Fire Hall.

George Todd,
Fire Chief.

whole gave its approval. He said he would not change his position on this matter. The Mayor's stance won him the support of Ald. Liesbeth Bakker who said that it was difficult for staff to operate at such public meetings if they did not know the position of council on the matter being discussed.

Trainer donated to Namao

On June 3, 1978 a T-33 "Silver Star" Jet Trainer aircraft was officially unveiled and turned over to CFB Edmonton by the Alberta Provincial Committee Air Cadet League of Canada and #533 RC(AIR)C Squadron, St. Albert.

The aircraft was originally acquired by the Alberta Provincial Air Cadet League, through the efforts of #533 RC(AIR)C Squadron, from Mr. F. A. Maybee, vice-president - Aerospace, Northwest Industries Limited and was completely assembled and repainted to the original RCAF configurations by N.W.I. After assembly and repainting the aircraft was air-lifted by #450 Helo Squadron Detachment to a prominent location at the entrance to CFB Edmonton.

The original serial number of the aircraft was #146. It was changed to #533 in honour of #533 Squadron, who initiated the action with the Provincial Committee to acquire the aircraft as a tribute of thanks for the support CFB Edmonton has provided to Air Cadet's throughout the Province.

In attendance at the ceremony were Col. D. Garland, commanding officer CFB Edmonton, Mr. F. A. Maybee, vice-president Aerospace, Northwest Industries Ltd., Mr. F. Marsh, chairman, Alberta Provincial Committee Air Cadet League of Canada, Capt. G. E. Martin P. ADO, #533 RC(AIR)C Squadron and an honour guard of Air Cadets from #533 Squadron.

Air Cadet League people in attendance were: Mr. Jack Yuill, Mr. Harold Fowler, Mr. Bob Tomchick, Mr. Stan Harry and Mr. Dan Bragg.

False impressions

Re: Letter "Impressions of St. Albert" - St. Albert Gazette, May 24, 1978.

I have reviewed the current Register of Alberta Association of Architects together with the 1978 Directory of Members for the Royal Architectural Institute of Canada, and hereby advise you that no Alfred Tramhel is listed. On investigation, I have established that a Mr. Tramhel was employed by Alberta Public Works until several years ago. This person was never employed as an Architect and in view of the absence of his name in the Association's records, he is not entitled to express an opinion as an Architect.

Perhaps in future, your office might consider the procedure of checking with the governing Professional Association on the membership status of a person expounding a 'Professional' opinion, in order that a misrepresentation of this type can be avoided.

Teacher comment

I wish to comment on an erroneous statement made in the report on the Catholic School Board budget in the May 31 issue of the St. Albert Gazette. The comment was made "Should the teachers eventually settle for a figure above the 6% provincial guideline..."

According to Hansard, April 28, 1978, the Minister of Education, the Hon. Julian Koziak stated, in response to a question from Mr. Ray Speaker (M.L.A. Little Bow) "we would hope wages and salaries would be negotiated at an increase not in excess of six to seven percent." However, it should be pointed out that though the provincial government stated that there would only be a six percent increase in the amount of funding for schools in the salary sector, the suggested salary levels of six to seven percent were merely suggestions and were not compulsory (see Hansard, March 20, 1978 - Premier's answer to the Leader of the Opposition). In other words, there is no provincial guideline.

I would suggest that the use of the six percent figure in the School Board report was a political move, intended to distort the facts and to shift the onus of responsibility for property tax increases from the provincial government (where it properly belongs) to the teachers.

A guideline is a guideline. There was no mention of it being compulsory.

Open letter to concerned individuals

"I watched my small son set off, jauntily, on his great adventure, well-scrubbed and polished, ready for his first day of school. I had no sense of foreboding; no inkling of the heartache, the frustration, the futile searching that lay in the years ahead."

For most children, that first day of school is an adventure eagerly anticipated, but for about 10 to 15 percent* of those children, the adventure becomes a nightmare. Those unfortunate children are among the 63,000 school-age Albertans estimated to be suffering from some form of "learning disability." Basic teaching techniques that work with normal children simply don't work with children who have learning disabilities.

"The reasons behind the learning disability may be genetic or involve problems at birth or in early development ... Whatever the reason, the result is that these children cannot correctly process information received through the senses."

The problems with perception can take a multitude of forms, but since they generally don't become obvious until the children are faced with academic learning, discovery is often after the children start school. Ironically, these children are often labelled difficult, slow, or "stupid" because of the lack of concentration, understanding, or co-ordination.

"Generally, brain imperfections are slight because these youngsters are not retarded, autistic, or primarily emotionally upset. They are of average or even above average intelligence. However, for the youngster embarking into the disciplined, lock-step world of the classroom, any deviance from the norm can have devastating results for him and his family."

TO PRODUCE SERIES

ACCESS Alberta, in co-operation with the Alberta Association for Children with Learning Disabilities, is producing a series of television and radio programs designed to create an awareness of the problem in both parents and teachers, and to offer help to adults who must help the child cope. NO TIME TO LOSE will outline clues to identification of learning disabilities, and will suggest ways that the children and the parents can be helped.

A four-person committee of specialists - Isabelle Reid, executive secretary of the Edmonton Association for Children with Learning Disabilities; Betty Finch, reading specialist with the Edmonton Public School Board; Gayle James, professor in the Faculty of Social Welfare at the University of Calgary; and Chris Brown, special education teacher at Salisbury Composite High School in Edmonton - aided in the development of the programs. ACCESS project co-ordinator is Ellen Watt, and the ACCESS producer is Richard Ewen.

No Time To Lose will appear on the regular Friday morning Access program "Come Alive," at 10 a.m. on September 1 and 8. The two half-hour television presentations are followed by two open-line radio programs on Access Radio CKUA from 10:30 to noon. Later in the fall, a series of half-hour radio programs featuring discussions by a group of experts in the field of learning disabilities will also be broadcast over CKUA.

No Time To Lose will be telecast on CFRN-TV Edmonton, CFAC-TV Calgary, CJOC-TV Lethbridge, CITL-TV Lloydminster, and CFCN TV Medicine Hat. The phone-in programs immediately following will invite participation on Access Radio CKUA at 580 on the AM dial; and on the FM dial at Stereo 94 Calgary, Stereo 95 Edmonton, Stereo 97 Peace River, Stereo 97 Medicine Hat, Stereo 99 Lethbridge, and Stereo 101 Grande Prairie.

The quoted passages in this letter are excerpted from an article about No Time To Lose and learning disabilities in general, by Isabelle Reid, that will appear in the Summer issue of Access Magazine which will be distributed in June. Access Magazine is available free of charge from Access Alberta at 16930 - 114 Avenue, Edmonton, Alberta; T5M 3S2.

Park neglect prompts letter

The increasing problem of vandalism and neglect in Lions Park was underscored at Monday night's meeting of council by a letter from the Ridgewood Terrace Mothers' Co-operative Nursery School.

The letter stated that the group had decided to hold its annual picnic in the Lions Park, rather than drive to Edmonton as some of its members preferred. However, upon their arrival they found the park in a sorry state, dilapidated and marred by broken glass. An inquiry was made of the City Parks department, who promptly dispatched a crew to clean up the area for the picnic. Although the group praised the quick action, the letter pointed out that "it is sad to see such a lovely park neglected in this manner."

The mothers of the co-operative also signed their names to a petition asking the city to set up a maintenance program and if necessary, a policing program for the park.

Commenting on the correspondence, Mayor Ronald Harvey said that the maintenance agreement had not yet been signed between the Lions Club and the city. However, Ald. Rod Thronson pointed out that the city had maintained the park before without an agreement but was now having problems as the city and the Lions "were whacking out an agreement over the road." He said he did not think the city's liability in the matter was that great.

Ald. Breadner moved that the feasibility of a park curfew be explored by staff and the RCMP. The motion carried.

Special chamber program

A special program is planned for the St. Albert and District Chamber of Commerce meeting on Wednesday, June 14. Corporal John Brecknock of the RCMP "K" Division will be guest speaker. His subject will be "Cheque Fraud." This should be of interest to all business people in the area. Losses due to cheque fraud are increasing and Corporal Brecknock will be able to give practical advice to control the problem. He will also outline other presentations which the RCMP can give and if there is enough interest, further meetings can be planned.

The St. Albert Chamber of Commerce invites all merchants and their staff to attend this meeting which will be in the Ridgewood Room, St. Albert Inn on June 14. Lunch (smorg) begins at 12 noon sharp. The discussion will commence at 12:30 and should last about 90 minutes.

Air Cadets in Review

No. 533 RC(Air)C Squadron

The most important night of a Cadet training year is annual inspection and last Thursday, June 1, 1978, #533 RC(Air)C held this event at the arena, beginning at 1900 hrs. Reviewing officer was Lt. Col. A. R. Donaldson with special guests, Capt. K. Farrar (ACO (A) Mr. W. Shields, representing the City of St. Albert, Mr. E. Jamison, MLA, Mr. E. Ayre, representing the St. Albert Lions Club, Mr. D. Parkin, chairman - Sponsoring Committee, St. Albert Lions Club, and Mr. K. Armstrong, Air Cadet League of Canada. An extremely large attendance of parents, Lions club members and visitors were also in attendance. Master of ceremonies for the evening was WO1 D. Webster, who did a very good job in keeping things on schedule.

Lt. Col. Donaldson who took the salute, addressed the cadets and guests, stating that it was evident why #533 Squadron was selected number one in Canada last year and would be strong contenders as well, in this years Provincial awards. He pointed out, the obvious strong support from the Sponsoring Body, St. Albert Lions Club, officers and parents alike, who all helped contribute to the fine showing of cadets. He congratulated all, especially cadets and officers on a job 'well done.'

Short speeches were addressed to cadets and guests by Mr. Shields, Mr. Jamison and Mr. Armstrong, briefly summarizing #533's record and achievements and complimenting them on their outstanding performances.

WO1 Webster introduced the Commanding Officer of #533, Maj. F. A. Maybee, who proceeded to announce the Award recipients of the year. Those selected were as follows:

Lynch Trophy - Most Dedicated Cadet - Cpl. S. Barr; #533 Sqn. Trophy - Most Co-operative Cadet, Cpl. D. Graham; #533 Sqn. Trophy - Best First Year Achievement, LAC C. Phillips, LAC J. Gallagher; Outstanding Bandsman Junior - Cpl. P. Quaghebeur; Outstanding Bandsman Senior - Sgt. G. Maybee; Most Valuable Bandsman - Cpl. B. Bauman; Outstanding Junior NCO - Cpl. F. Lalor; Outstanding Senior NCO - WO2 R. Fecteau; Cadet of the Year - WO2 T. Davies.

Mr. E. Ayre, St. Albert Lions Club presented F/Sgt. M. Parkin, who won an overseas Exchange Scholarship, a $100 cheque as well as blazer and slacks for his trip. F/Sgt. Parkin will be spending approximately two weeks in Spain, representing Air Cadet in Canada. Date of departure is late June.

Major Maybee had a special award for WO1 D. Webster who is retiring this year. He joined #533 six years as a rather shy young man. His progression through Air Cadets has been excellent, winning an Exchange Scholarship to England last year. He has obtained the top rank possible in any Squadron, that of WO1 and we wish WO1 Webster well in all future endeavours.

A very dedicated group in #533 are the Civilian Instructors who put in a great deal of time and effort on our behalf. These instructors were presented a "memento of appreciation" and we want to thank Mr. D. Cousineau, Effective Speaking Class, Mr. J. Doyle, Electronics, Mr. D. Fraser, First Aid, Mr. D. Kosman, Flying Scholarship, Mr. R. Ewasluk - Flying Scholarship, Mr. B. Pettigrew, CB Radio, Mr. B. Neilsen, CB Radio, Mr. M. Cady, Junior Level, Mr. R. Turner, Airframe/Aero Engine, for their support.

Mr. D. Parkin who has been the chairman of the Sponsoring Body, St. Albert Lions Club, this past year also received a plaque in appreciation of his support and interest. Unfortunately Mr. Parkin must relinquish his position due to business pressures.

Two certificates of promotion to WO2 were presented to A/WO2 R. Fecteau and A/WO2 L. Rogers. Both cadets have worked hard and contributed much to the Squadron. Congratulations!

A special event of the evening was the presentation of a Canadian Forces Decoration (CD) to Capt. G. E. Martin by Lt. Col. Donaldson. This decoration is earned by 12 years of meritorious service.

Capt. K. Farrar, the Area Cadet Officer (Air) (ACO (A)), for the past three years has been posted to Nova Scotia and #533's annual inspection was the last he would attend in the province. A special memento was presented to him by Maj. Maybee. The award, a mounted T-33 Clock, embellished with an Air Cadet Figure, a #533 Squadron Pin, a #533 Top Squadron in Canada pin, Air Cadet cap badge, Air Command badge and, so that Capt. Farrar would not forget Alberta, a Province of Alberta pin. Capt. Farrar has given #533 excellent support and all at our Squadron are sorry to see him leave. We extend our appreciation and wish Capt. Farrar the best of luck in his new posting.

Immediately following the inspection guests attended an "Open House" at the Community Hall, where cadets had set up excellent class displays. These were manned by cadets and were very impressive, eg: Aero-Engine Photography, First Aid, CB Radio, rations, to name just a few. Refreshments were served and judging from the interest and feed-back to the officers, the open house was an excellent show and the evening itself a tremendous success.

We would like to thank all those who participated in this evening, the parents, the ACO (A) Detachment, Lions Club of St. Albert, guests, instructors, officers and most of all the cadets who came out and put on excellent displays and showed their tremendous abilities.

City to study coal haul impact

MANUAL LABOUR

Kinsmen club members from St. Albert, Fort Edmonton and Sherwood Park put on a display of brute force and hefted this 2800 lb. steel girder into place as part of the new bleachers they are erecting for the upcoming St. Albert Rodeo.

WARMING UP IN THE BULL PEN

Kinsmen President Gerry Rayburn, rolled up his sleeves and got down to business putting up the pen which will hold the Brahma bulls during Rodeo 117, June 16, 17 and 18.

SEATING FOR 5,000

The new bleachers at the Rodeo Grounds on Riel Drive are being put up at a cost of over $60,000 and will likely find use during the Alberta Summer Games in '79. The Kinsmen Club is receiving a great deal of support from other Kinsmen Clubs as well as from non member volunteers. With the Rodeo fast approaching (June 16, 17 and 18), they could still use some help to get them out from behind the eight ball.

The prospect of industrial coal trucks on the St. Albert Trail prompted Ald. Bill Shields to add the matter of the Star Key Mines to Monday night's council agenda. Mr. Shields proposed the impact of the coal haul to be assessed, and a report to be presented at the upcoming Energy Resources Conservation Board.

In presenting his concerns, Mr. Shields said that the Genstar proposal to develop the mine would result in 80 trucks per day hauling coal through the city centre. Mr. Shields moved that the city express its concerns to the ERCB and the Alberta government, relating to increased industrial traffic leading to noise pollution, safety problems and a decline in the quality of life for those whose properties abut Highway 2.

Ald. Margaret Smith commented that "it is a pity they are not using the railroad" and said there was an increased overuse of highways.

Ald. Barry Breadner raised the possibility of flyash emissions, and stated that inquiries should be made at the hearings concerning sulphur dioxide emissions.

Mr. Shields motion carried. He then moved that it be the position of the City of St. Albert that Highway 2 should not be used for industrial coal hauls until the government has affected east or west alternative routes. However, he withdrew this motion when it was pointed out that the city could not restrict commerce on this highway. He placed a substitute motion asking that staff be instructed to identify potential cross impacts of Star Key Mines and subsequent hauls upon the city of St. Albert and present them to the ERCB. This motion carried.

Private eye to address group

A millionaire private eye who has survived 13 attempts on his life is one of three speakers to address half-day seminars in Edmonton June 22 and 23 in conjunction with an area meeting of the Administrative Management Society.

Jay J. Armes is the man who heads an international organization of detectives. He will be advising his audience how to prevent internal embezzlement and how to protect commercial property from theft.

Mr. Armes believes in electronic gadgetry and some of his devices make the fearsome equipment of James Bond seem like child's play. Mr. Armes' remarkable career is made more impressive by the fact that he lost both hands in a dynamite explosion at the age of 12, but maintains he has no handicap, in fact he considers his hooks as tools, able to perform tasks that normal hands can't. He will arrive in Edmonton complete with bodyguard who accompanies him on his travels.

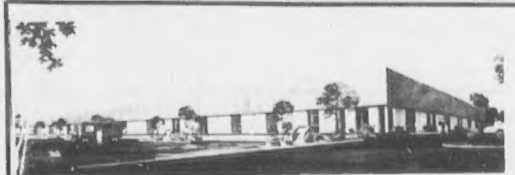

The other society speakers include Dr. Kathleen Gow, a management consultant with a message for working women; and Louis Seiberlich, a former assistant vice-president of Manpower Inc. who will speak on communication in business.

The speakers will be appearing at the Edmonton Inn June 22 and 23, 1978, sponsored by the Edmonton Chapter of AMS whose membership consists of administrative managers.

Two hundred and fifty society members are expected to attend from Edmonton, Calgary, British Columbia and the Pacific Northwest.

Tickets to the presentation by the three guest speakers will be available to the general public on a fee basis through Ms. Audrey Fester at 482-1444.

MR. BUSINESSMAN WHY RENT WHEN YOU CAN OWN

For less than the price of a single house lot you can buy your own piece of land in RIEL BUSINESS PARK in St. Albert and build your very own office, showroom, warehouse or light manufacturing premises.

Tire playgrounds at Bertha Kennedy and VG going up on weekend

Two down and two to go. Last weekend community volunteers erected tire playgrounds at Albert Lacombe and Father Jan schools and the neighbourhood children have been swimming over them ever since.

Another two tire playgrounds will be built Saturday - one at Bertha Kennedy School in Lacombe Park and another at Vival Grandin in Sturgeon.

The Bertha Kennedy project will be the biggest to date and the playground committee would be happy to accept help from any volunteers who would like to become involved. All that's required is a phone call to the school if you would like to help with organizational activities on Friday or just show up at the school grounds by 9 a.m. Saturday morning dressed in work clothes and shoes.

Anyone who has heavy duty tools that they could bring along on Friday for cataloguing (so you get them back) would sure be appreciated. At present the group is looking at about a $200 expenditure for equipment rental which they cannot really afford.

Meanwhile the Mission Playground Committee (Father Jan) would like to extend a thank you to groups and businesses who made their project the great success it was: staff and students of Father Jan, City of St. Albert, District 3, Standard General Construction, Lacombe Red Rooster, Johnson Meats, Northwest Commercial Sales, Crown Tire, Red Brownie Park, Safeway, Woodwards, Burns, Palm Dairy, McDonald's, KADP, St. Albert Bakery, Sturgeon Valley Produce, Albert Church and Teaching, K of C, St. Albert Tire and Trailer Town, Calgary Power, Link Hardware, West Can, Firestone, The Gazette and several anonymous donors.

The heat wave on the weekend matched the high enthusiasm of the approximately 60 workers who turned out to build the playground Saturday.

Good team work and hard labour allowed one extra tire structure to be built.

The Food Committee kept the eager workers cool with endless ice cold drinks and fed them lunch at the site.

After the work was done everyone gathered in the Father Jan gym for a community meal.

Success of the project was directly the result of devoted community effort on the part of the volunteers at Father

Jan and the surrounding area as well as through the donations of money, products and services from the above mentioned businesses.

Names of those individuals and firms who aided the Grandin playground committee will appear in next week's Gazette.

... The 3rd St. Albert Brownie pack turned over $25 to the Mission Park Playground Society to help cover costs incurred in construction. Brown Owl Jeanette Muir made the presentation to members of the Society Angus Mackie (left), Lucille Sylvester and Roswitha Throckmorton. The playground is located at Father Jan school.

The St. Albert Oilers baseball club were whipping their new team into shape for their first season of play. The team was scheduled to play its first league game against Morinville, but had lost an exhibition double header to Legal.

The Town of St. Albert announced their budget, working with a grand total expenditure of $1,883,921, and striking a mill rate of 78 mills. Ten years later, May 24, 1978, the city budget had swelled to $10.68 million!

Maureen Sieben, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Sieben of St. Albert, was married to Mr. Tony Petty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Petty of St. Albert in a ceremony at the Roman Catholic Church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boisvert of the Youville Home, formerly of Legal, were honoured at a banquet and social marking their Diamond Wedding Anniversary.

MAY 26, 1976

AEC acquires more rights in Suffield range

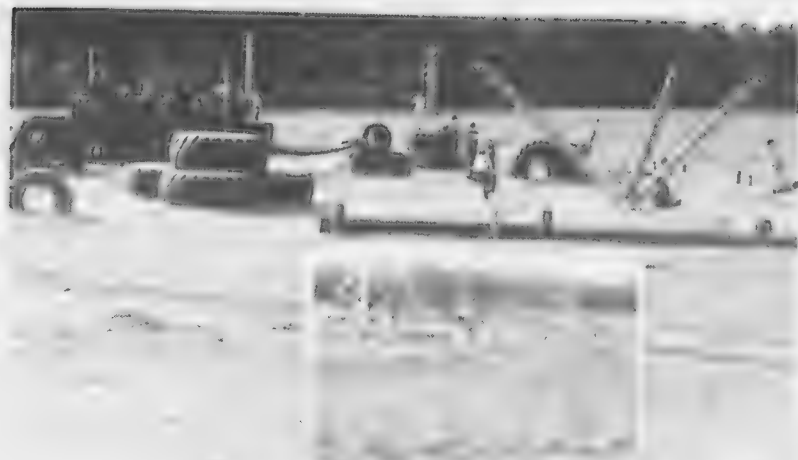

Alberta Energy Company Ltd. announced that it has acquired the petroleum and natural gas rights underlying another large block of military acreage in Alberta, for 57.6 million. This block is a bombing and gunnery range at Primrose, which is located north of Cold Lake, Alberta, and straddles the Alberta/Saskatchewan border. The Alberta rights, which the company has acquired, encompass approximately 2,000 square miles or about one and one-quarter million acres.

The agreement will be effective when the surface access rights have been obtained, and negotiations in this regard are actively in progress between the federal and provincial governments.

AEC's previous experience and performance at suffield military base, together with the excellent relationship that has been established with the military forces, are expected to permit surface access in a manner that makes it possible for development of these Canadian energy resources to occur while military operations continue.

Primrose activities will likely be patterned after suffield, but take a longer period to accomplish.

AEC believes the Primrose bombing and gunnery range has potential for natural gas and heavy oil development but, unlike suffield, there are no significant gas reserves established.

Something old - something new

Before the Grandin Park Playground Society got together to build a Tire Playground at Albert Lacombe School the neighbourhood children had very little in the way of equipment to play with. One of the few pieces previously available was the monkey bars (insert). The Society would like to thank the many volunteers who turned out Saturday to make the project possible.

Lougheed receives Toastmasters Award

Peter Lougheed, Premier of Alberta, has been selected as one of 50 outstanding leaders throughout the world to receive the Toastmasters International Communication and Leadership Award this year.

The award was presented to Mr. Lougheed Saturday, May 13, by the international president of Toastmasters, Durwood E. English of San Diego, California.

Toastmasters district governor Neil Wilkinson of Edmonton says the award cites Mr. Lougheed for "his leadership and statemanship in communicating the aspirations of the people of Alberta and western Canada to the national and international community."

The Toastmasters International President presented the award to Mr. Lougheed at a luncheon on Saturday at the Edmonton Plaza Hotel. The presentation highlighted a two-day conference for Toastmasters from Alberta and Saskatchewan. The conference will conclude Saturday evening (May 13) with a banquet and the finals in the Toastmasters district speech contest.

District 42 is composed of 47 Toastmasters clubs and approximately 1200 members in Alberta and Saskatchewan. There are 14 Toastmasters clubs in Edmonton.

Toastmasters International is a non-profit, educational association which has helped more than a million people through its communication and leadership program. There are more than 3000 Toastmasters clubs and approximately 60,000 members in more than 40 countries throughout the world.

A Toastmasters club provides its members with opportunities to improve their communication ability, to conduct meetings and to develop their executive leadership. Club activities are based on the principle of learning by doing and improving through practice and evaluation.

Bugnet

and is grateful for the honour. We are really pleased the University recognized one of the first pioneers of this region who has contributed so much both to botany and to literature and is renowned for his roses, and his poetry which is really ours. We congratulate Mr. Bugnet as deserving of this honorary Doctorate.

A PROUD FAMILY

The Bugnet name will live on in Canada for many long years, probably forever, as the most recent count indicated that Georges Bugnet's descendants number over 140. His nine children and equally beloved adopted daughter were all present for the Convocation: Charles the oldest son is 73 and makes his home in Ottawa. His wife was unable to come and the couple have nine children. Joseph and his wife Eva were present, the couple has two children. Mary (Mrs. Noel) of Clyde has no children; Marthe Beauchamp of Redwater, a widow with four children; John from Edmonton was present, he and his wife Eva have eight children. Therese, Mrs. Alphonse Gagnon of Edmonton, has five children. Maurice and his wife Lorette of Morinville both attended, and they have a family of four. Madeline (Mrs. Walter Berglund) from Edmonton has nine children. Louise, Mrs. Charles Williams of Edmonton has 12 children. Rita, the adopted daughter came from Ottawa, she and her husband Gerry Banville have three children, for a grand total of 56 grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Bugnet moved to Legal in 1970 and Georges makes his home at Chateau Sturgeon. He was predeceased by his wife in 1972. The famous Therese Bugnet Rose was named jointly for his sister and daughter of that name.

POSTSCRIPT

A number of family members went to see Mr. Bugnet on the day after the Convocation. The old gentleman who is now blind and very hard of hearing, confessed to being a little tired. "But I am hungry," he said, "as hungry as can be." Which may have had to do with the traditional Convocation Tea, for he had commented to Professor Blodgett as he surveyed one small dainty sandwich on his serviette. "Is that all we get to eat?", to the latter's great amusement.

It sounds as if Georges Bugnet, who has a fondness for chocolate rosebuds and the odd glass of brandy, is still in fine fettle and will be around for a long while to enjoy his most recent honour.

Education Royal Society Fellowship earned

Dr. Cyril Kay, professor of biochemistry at the University of Alberta, has been elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada.

The induction ceremony will be held June 4 at the University of Western Ontario in London, Ontario, in conjunction with the Society's annual meeting.

Dr. Kay, 46, is co-director of a research group on protein structure and function which was established by the Medical Research Council in 1974.

The basic work of the six-member group is to determine how proteins and enzymes act in the relaxation and contraction of muscles.

Dr. Kay's major research interest centres on the isolation, characterization, and interaction properties of the contractile proteins from skeletal and cardiac tissues.

Dr. Kay, who is president of the Canadian Biochemical Society for 1977-78, is a native of Calgary. He graduated from McGill University in 1952 with a Bachelor of Science degree (honors biochemistry) and received a Doctor of Philosophy degree (physical biochemistry) from Harvard University in 1956.

KEBARLE ELECTED

The research work of Dr. Paul Kébarle of the University of Alberta has earned him Fellowship in the Royal Society of Canada.

Dr. Kébarle, professor of chemistry, describes his research as "essentially a comparison of the behavior of ions in gases with the behavior of ions in solution."

About 10 years ago he developed a modification of the mass spectrometer to the extent that the device could be applied to the study of ionic reactions in gases.

Observing the behavior of ions in gases, he says, has proved of great value in understanding the behavior of ions in solution.

In addition to research, Dr. Kébarle teaches general chemistry and physical chemistry courses and is active on a committee of the chemistry department which screens applications from graduate students throughout the world.

Dr. Kébarle was born in Sofia, Bulgaria, in 1926 and received his undergraduate degree from the Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich, Switzerland.

He emigrated to Canada in 1952 and, four years later graduated from the University of British Columbia with a Doctor of Philosophy degree.

Two years of post-doctoral study at the National Research Council in Ottawa preceded his appointment to the University of Alberta in 1958.

Bank, university co-operate in program

The University of Calgary and the Royal Bank of Canada are joining forces to present a unique and innovative program for high school teachers, counsellors and subject supervisors involved in consumer education and family management.

The seminar, entitled Your Money Matters, will be held July 9 to 14 at U of C with instruction by Professors W. J. Blackman and Z. M. Kubinski of the department of economics. Enrolment will be limited to ensure effective group discussion.

Based on the belief that good money management can be improved through an understanding of some basic economic principles, the course will provide participants with a comprehensive exposition and discussion on the economic principles of personal finance to assist them in teaching their students.

The first day will be devoted to an analysis of the structure of the Canadian financial system and the institutional and economic environment of the personal decision-maker, with the emphasis on individual and family units as producers of income.

The economic use of household resources, the distribution of personal income and the reasons for income disparities will be discussed on the second day.

On the third day, the allocation of household income to taxation, consumption and savings and dynamic consumption patterns will be reviewed.

The financial markets and the management of personal savings, the maximization of real earnings over the life time of the household, risks and returns, and expectations and market realities will all be examined on the fourth day.

On the final day of the seminar, representatives from government and business will discuss personal financial decision-making from an institutional point of view.

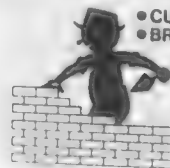

A grant from the Royal Bank of Canada will be used to provide students with residence accommodation, meals for five days, an opening reception, closing dinner and course materials. The registration fee is $50. Interested persons must register before June 9 with the U of C faculty of continuing education, phone 284-5431.

A limited amount of money is available to assist those who must travel from distant centres and applicants should send a brief letter noting their requirements.

Citadel to open with Harold and Maude

General Manager Wayne Fipke this week confirmed Harold and Maude as the opening play of the Shector Theatre's 78-79 season, beginning October 4.

The Citadel is pleased to announce that Glynis Johns, well known for her almost 50 film and innumerable stage appearances, has been signed to play the part of Maude.

Some of her films include "Mary Poppins," "Under Milkwood," "Around The World in 80 Days," "Shake Hands With The Devil," "The Beachcomber" and "Too Good To Be True." On Broadway Miss Johns won the 1973 Tony Award for Best Actress for her role as Desiree-Armfeldt in A Little Night Music. Other title roles in Broadway productions recently, include The Pretty Hat, Major Barbara and Too Good To Be True. In England, she played the title role of Peter Pan and appeared in The Children's Hour. Miss Johns most recently toured England, Canada and the United States in the title role of The Marquise, and starred in Ring Around The Moon, with Michael York in Los Angeles. She previously worked with Peter Coe in the film "Lock Up Your Daughters," and the English stage production The King's Mare.

Mr. Fipke also announced the signing of Robert Joy to play the part of Harold. Mr. Joy is a native of St. John's Newfoundland, and a 1973 Rhodes Scholar from that province to Oxford University where he studied English language and literature. He is also a founding actor-musician-writer-composer for CODCO, the Newfoundland comedy troupe whose briny wit and pungent satire makes it a national treasure, according to the Toronto Star. Among Mr. Joy's television appearances are CBC's "The National Dream" and "Pity The Poor Piper." When Toronto's Young People's Theatre opened their new centre last Fall with The Diary of Anne Frank, Mr. Joy played Peter Van Caan in the production which started Eli Wallach and Kate Reid.

Citadel audiences can expect to enjoy some hilarious moments and fine acting talent in this opening production, Harold and Maude.

Lifestyle of first Australians at Provincial Museum till Aug. 13

For the first time, Edmonton and area residents will be able to learn about the lifestyle of the first Australians -- the Aborigines through their art. This major new exhibit, sponsored by Alberta Culture and Festival '78, features more than 200 Aboriginal weapons, carvings, weavings, and paintings plus photographic documentation. The show will be at the Provincial Museum from June 3 to August 13.

The exhibit looks beyond the outward primitive appearance of a simple race of hunters into the complex system of aboriginal beliefs, social organization, art, education and the working relationship between these elements.

The culture and art of the Australian Aborigine became rich and highly developed. This exhibit shows that economic, social, psychological and individual security was provided for both the weak and the able. Humor, dignity and responsible leadership were all valued. High efficient procedures were developed to educate the young. The past, present and future, known and unknown were bound together in belief expressed in song, dance and decorative arts.

As late as 1965 a few Aborigine tribes had never seen a white person. Some of their paintings in the show illustrate their legends, and are a direct message from a stone-age people with a heritage of the land that goes back 40,000 years.

For the Australian Aborigine, art was a part of both daily life and religious ritual. Even the simplest boomerang, shield, spear, water carrier or household utensil was symbolically decorated. In dry, sandy country, the ground itself provided a medium for artistic expression and story telling. Construction of large ground paintings often involved as many as 30 aborigines.

Other interesting areas of the exhibit are the totem pole carvings by the people in jungle areas and religious paintings done on Eucalyptus bark.

The museum is open seven days a week, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Admission is free.

Masks, paintings featured at Library

Featured in the Foyer Gallery in the Centennial Library during June will be an exhibition of masks in sculpture and paintings by

MARUSHKA KURYLO FINLEY.

A B.F.A. graduate of the San Francisco Art Institute, Marushka has travelled extensively in search of her faces.

"When I see an interesting face, I can't resist wondering if they'd be willing to sit for me and have it cast into a life mask. I'm fascinated by people whose faces contain a lot of valuable information. From that raw input, I develop what I see into impressions of a deeper nature."

Marushka enjoys painting also, but concentrates mainly on three dimensional forms. Her work evokes mystery of things old and personal - painted multi-media backgrounds with objects and images, expressing concern for her subjects. Her life figures represent real life interpretations of people isolated in a variety of situations and set in environments that suggest illusionistic reality.

Born in Alberta, Marushka has spent the last year in Edmonton, but will continue to enjoy living in foreign countries as an inspiration to her work.

The exhibition can be viewed in the Foyer Gallery from June 2 until June 30.

CBC documents the Alberta establishment

Who Are They?
How do they operate?
Where are they going?

CBC 740 Radio will feature a week of half hour documentaries on the seven most influential and powerful businessmen in Alberta. The series runs from June 12 to 16 from 5:30 to 6 p.m.

It will look at the activities of these powerful seven men and how far reaching the impact. What is their vision and what does it mean to residents of Alberta and Canada as a whole.

Bette Davis films screened

Alberta Culture has organized a festival of early films made by Bette Davis Sundays in June at the Provincial Museum. Two showings are scheduled at 4 and 7 p.m. Admission is free.

June 11 is Jezebel (1938). Davis won an Oscar for her role as a tempestuous Southern belle who goes to far to make her fiance jealous. Also stars Henry Fonda and Donald Crisp.

June 18 is The Corn is Green (1945). Set in a Welsh mining town, Davis plays a devoted middle-aged teacher who comes to terms with her prize pupil. Also stars Nigel Bruce and John Dall.

June 25 is The Man Who Came To Dinner (1941). A witty production about an author who is forced to stay for the winter with a family. His eccentric ways drive them crazy. Also stars Monty Woolley and Ann Sheridan.

Summertime, summer reading is historical fiction. It's a form of reading which can be entertaining and enlightening simultaneously. A good author has researched the period to enable him or her to pass on the flavour of the time to the reader. At least the good ones do. Good historical fiction recaptures the past without the necessity of resorting to booze, blondes, and beds, although one or two of those type of historical fiction are good reads, such as the Angelique series by Sergeanne Golon. Light, frothy, and fun to read, this series trace the improbable Angelique in Europe at the time of the Sun king, Louis XIV.

Looking at some of the older historical novels, there is Anthony Adverse by Hervey Allen. This was a best seller back in 1934. It will be interesting to see if, when you read it, you agree or disagree it should have been on the best seller lists. This romantic novel tells the story of Anthony, born in 1775, illegitimate, orphaned, left to die in a Catholic convent. Apprenticed to a wealthy Italian merchant, whose heir he became, the hero had wide financial interests, being at one time a slave trader, another time associated with Napoleon, and very interested in the New World. A roaring lengthy book.

In 1776 the United States celebrated its bi-centennial. There were some novels about the Revolution and the brave colonists who won their independence. But, not too much is heard about the losers, the ones who were exiled because they chose to remain loyal to the Crown. Back in 1940 Kenneth Roberts wrote "Oliver Wiswell," which tells the story of the Revolution from the Loyalist viewpoint. Oliver is found in Boston, New York, Paris, Kentucky. He takes part in the Georgia campaign and finally settles in New Brunswick. This is a long interesting book, portraying a side of the Revolution often overlooked.

During the Revolution, Nova Scotia nearly became the 14th state. Thomas Roddall tells the story in "His Majesty's Yankees." It is an interesting tale, well told, of how British arrogance and New England pettiness both tried to give Nova Scotia to the other side. This is one struggle New England wishes it had lost, for in the end Nova Scotia remained loyal to the Crown, but it wasn't by much.

Sometime a novelist will take an old legend and give it a new interpretation. Victor Canning reviews the Arthurian Legend in a trilogy, of which two volumes are out. These are "The Crimson Chalice" and "The Circle of the Gods." The time is in that period when the Romans had just left and the Saxons were beginning to filter in, approximately 450 A.D. England was being fought over by native British warlords and the new invaders. These books set the scene and take Arthur up to his first victories against the Saxons. Victor Canning has written two very interesting books which leave the reader anticipating his third and final volume.

There are many turns and turns in history. At one time, everyone assumed Richard 111 was as black a villain as Shakespeare portrayed. Josephine Tey in "The Daughter of Time" was the first to write about Richard 111 and ask questions. Marian Palmer in "The White Boar" writes about Richard 111 as he might have appeared to his contemporaries. Two very interesting novels about a most controversial king.

Finally, a sea story. This time the hero is neither English or American, but an Acadian, Victor Suthren in "The Black Cockade." We follow Paul Gallant through the seige of Louisberg, capture and escape from an English prison and a strange interlude in Algeria. These escapades combine to make this book fun summer reading.

I suppose that after the gorgeous weekend we had everyone is showing off their tans - or tending to their burns. I would say that the

Hideout Column

Recently, the first general members and teen-aiders meeting was held at the Centre. Various topics were discussed and with input from the teens, teen executive, teen-aiders and members of the Teen Society a good deal was accomplished.

A few tempers flared up when a controversial topic was reached and so we would like to apologize for this incident. Getting angry is not the purpose of these general meetings. Now, remember Ma, this means you, too.

One complaint on my behalf though: Don't most of you out there find that your teen-age children are more important than a hockey game or any other television program? If so, another one of these meetings will be held in the near future so try and make room for it, huh?

This last weekend, another Discotheque was held in the Centre, with very good results. It was enjoyed by all, teen-aiders included. I hope Trevor enjoyed it, too. Many thanks to Mrs. DeChamplain and Music Machine for an enjoyable and successful Disco. And remember, Bobby, Meatloaf is available at almost any store for a reasonable fee...

An announcement that concerns all: The Official Teen Centre opening will take place this weekend, Saturday, June 10 from 1 to 4, with all sorts of goodies to eat, and impressive digni-ties to rap with. That same evening a member's night only will take place, so all those of you without membership cards, you can buy one Saturday night for only one dollar.

In order to make room and get ready for the official opening, the centre will be closed for this week only, during lunch-hour and Friday evening from 7 till 12. Sorry for the inconvenience guys, but that's the way it goes.

The centre will be opening for regular operations next Monday, June 12.

Stay tuned (?) for more information on Hideout business...

weather was a good enough excuse not to open the books, wouldn't you?

Unfortunately though, we procrastinators are going to have to quit making excuses pretty soon ... finals start on Friday, June 16. There is nothing more horrible, more terrible, more tortuous than staying in to study when you could be on the beach!

I think that the June final exams are the cruelist form of sadism that could ever be endured by the students!

On Monday, June 5, the Litter Blitz finally went through. Members of Pitch did the job and now it is possible to sit down without cigarette butts sticking to your butt! Good job, Pitch, and thanks!

Friday, June 9 is Hat Day. All SAHS students are going to wear the craziest hats they can find - and there will be prizes for the most original ones. It should be a lot of fun!

I'll leave you with one hint for the week - "tan while you cram!" See ya!

Flying Fairy

By Heidi Krauskopf - aged 7

I would like to fly like a fairy.

I would have a light blue dress and light blue wings. I would also have a wand and a halo. I would give little children three wishes and adults four wishes because adults would be big like me. I would also wear bright pink little slippers. I would fly through the air and be like an angel too. If people say that I am an angel, I would give them even more wishes. I would want to please everybody.

Voice of V.J. Maloney

By Cheryl Carlou and Heather Smith

As the school year comes to an end teachers are tense and students are edgy because of the coming exams and graduation.

So far preparation for the Grade 9 Graduation has been moving along very well. The supper lasts from 6 to 7 p.m. Some students have been waiting for Award Night all year. It starts at 7 p.m. and ends 8 p.m. It will be a toss-up in some classes for the awards while others already know that they are going to win.

Afterwards is the dance. It is for both grade 8 and 9 and lasts from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Checkmate is the band which is playing. These events all happen on June 8.

Exams are quickly approaching again. They begin on June 20 and end on the 24th. The students who have 85% or over in any school subject will be exempted and won't have to take that exam.

Remember early in the month of May when we started the 50 Mile Club? It just ended on May 31. There were clubs such as 10 miles all the way to 50. There were 46 students and staff that made it all the way to 50. Congratulations to all of you.

We have to say sorry to Lynn Murray for leaving her name out of the Paul Kane Track Meet Standards. She came in first in every event she took part in.

VJM hosted their intramural track meet Friday, June 2. Under sunny skies many records were broken. Following are the first place winners in the Senior and Intermediate categories:

Summer Hot Spots

Community Services is sponsoring a youth program beginning on July 15 and ending on September 1. The Hot Spots are to be located at the Grandin Clubhouse on Grenfell Avenue and Larose Drive.

Some of the activities offered will be horseback riding, canoeing, camping, crafts, music, dances and indoor and outdoor sports. This program will be operating Monday through Friday from 12 a.m. to 8 p.m. All teens between 13 - 16 are welcome to participate in these activities.

Joanne Cole and Butch Lindstrom will be visiting all the local junior and senior high schools in St. Albert.

Butch and Joanne both of St. Albert will be explaining in more detail the programs offered and asking for input from the students for any further ideas as to what activities they may desire. As this program is for the youth of St. Albert, their ideas are more than welcome.

The official ceremony for the handing over of the T33 Jet to CFB Edmonton by the Air Cadet League of Canada was held Saturday PM June 3, 1978. Capt. G. E. Martin represented #533 Squadron with a contingent of cadets serving as colour guard. Mr. F. A. Maybee represented Northwest Industries Ltd., the donors of the T33, through the effort of #533 RC(AIR)C and representatives of the Air Cadet League of Canada were in attendance. Mr. F. Marsh, president of the Alberta Committee of the League officially handed over the jet to Col. D. Garland, Base Commander. A reception in the Officers Mess immediately followed.

AWARDS BANQUET

The annual Air Cadet

League awards banquet was held Saturday evening, June 3 at Griesbach. WO2 Fecteau, #533 Squadron was master of ceremonies and did an excellent job of keeping things progressing. This is an annual event in which cadets throughout the Province attend and receive the respective awards. This year #533 were recipients of the Provincial Jr. and Sr. drill team trophies. As well a very special and highly regarded award was presented to WO2 R. Fecteau, as top cadet in Alberta. The "Rusty Bragg Memorial Trophy" was presented by the son of the late Rusty Bragg, to WO2 Fecteau. This trophy is awarded yearly to the best Senior NCO in the Province. A combination of leadership, ability, dedication and effort are all contributors in the awarding of this trophy. WO2 R. Fecteau has excelled in all respects and has deservedly won the highest personal award of the league in the Province. Congratulations WO2 Fecteau for an outstanding achievement.

This past week has been extremely busy at #533, but hopefully this Thursday will be back to normal. Upcoming events will be announced on parade. Cadet information can be obtained by phoning 459-7277, Thursday night, 06:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

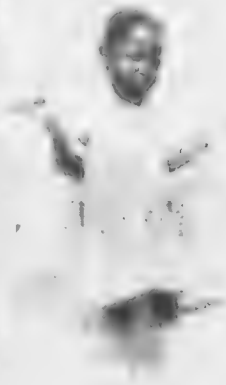

St. Albert couple becomes foster parents

Roger and Donna Iddings of St. Albert have adopted little Tenin, three years old, of Mali, West Africa under the Foster Parents Plan of Canada. The $19 per month paid by the Iddings provides the family with a cash grant or free medical, dental and prescription benefits and a sustained counselling service, plus various special programs.

The objective of the Plan is to help families such as this one to become self-supporting and independent.

Little Tenin has a sister, Nene, and the girls live with their parents on a farm at Ouleny. The Iddings join a growing number of St. Albert families who share their good fortunes with destitute families in various countries of the Third World.

Home of the Week

ONE LEVEL LUXURY LIVING

Plan No. P5-4-284

Designed for the ultimate in good living, this four bedroom plan of the week has every convenience and many extras not found in the average family home.

For instance, the double garage has an inside door to the utility and kitchen area, for unloading shopping, as well as an enclosed storage area. The exterior is vertical siding, with horizontal siding on the gable for contrast, topped with a shake roof.

Through the attractive panel door is a large foyer. Close at hand is the guest coat closet and an arch to the family room. This could be closed off with a wall or door, to keep the areas completely private if required. On the right an inner hall continues to the bedroom wing and on the left are two steps down to the sunken living room.

This spacious living room features a graceful bay window and a wood-burning fireplace with raised hearth. Two steps up and you are in the large family dining room. These two rooms combine to offer an ideal area for large group gatherings, with service from the kitchen but a step away.

Mother will not believe the built-in conveniences to be found in this expansive kitchen. There's plenty of cupboard space, plus room for wall ovens, and a centrally-located cooking and preparation island. From the twin sinks, through a full window, there's a view of the back garden, and a maximum of daylight while doing those kitchen chores.

From the nook there is an entrance to the utility, back door and vanity washroom. The washer and dryer are ideally located near the rear entry, where wet and muddy clothes can soon be taken care of. There is also a counter and storage cupboard for washing supplies.

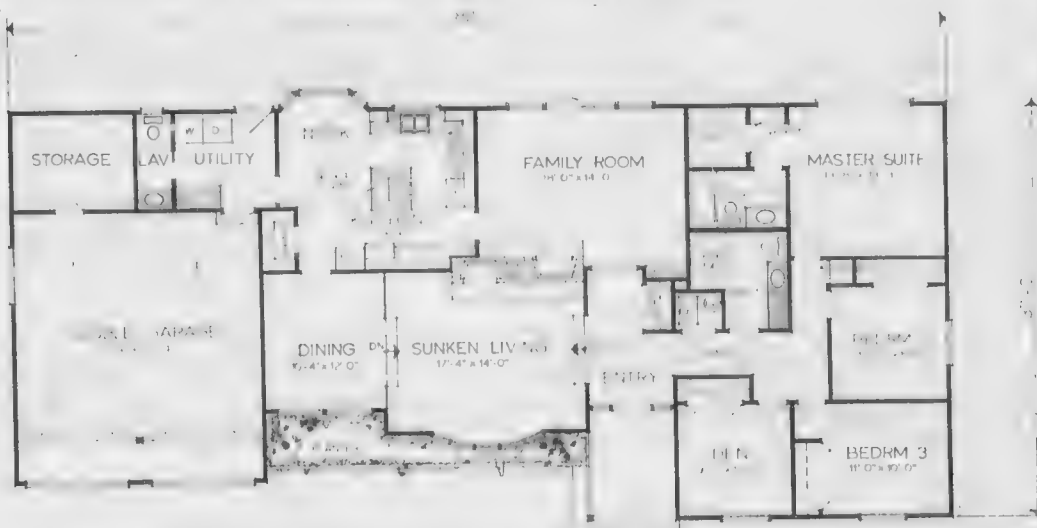

The smaller of the four bedrooms could be converted to a den-guest room, for multiple use. Like bedroom number two and three, the den is served by the ultra tub-vanity bathroom, off the inner hall. The furnace, hot water heater and linen closet are all conveniently housed in cupboards off the same inner hall.

Luxury plus is the key to the master suite. The main area of the bedroom will hold a full size bedroom suite with ease. Sliding glass doors open to the rear patio for the early morning sun. A three-piece, full bath ensuite, is extra large and the walk-in closet, with adjacent vanity, form a bonus dressing room.

This ideal home for a large family has plenty of storage space throughout the house, with no basement to accumulate too many things. All in all, it's one level luxury living at it's best.

Plans for design No. P5-4-284 may be obtained at a cost of $100 for a set of three and $10 for each additional copy. Allow $2 to cover postage and handling.

To view more than 100 well-designed quality homes of every type, send for the current publication of the Home Plan Catalogue available for $2.60 ($2.25 plus 35¢ postage and handling). Make all cheques and money orders payable to "Plan of the Week" and mail to: Plan of the Week c/o St. Albert & Sturgeon Gazette, 324 Columbia Street, New Westminster, B.C. V3L 1A6.

The Tongue and Its Words

Many have experienced the confusion of traffic accidents and have had to try to summarize exactly what happened in a few words or less on insurance or accident forms. The following quotes were taken from these forms and were eventually published in the Toronto Sun, July 26, 1977.

- Coming home, I drove into the wrong house and collided with a tree I don't have.
- The other car collided with mine without giving warning of its intentions.
- I thought my window was down, but found out it was up when I put my hand through it.
- I collided with a stationary truck coming the other way.
- A truck backed through my windshield into my wife's face.
- A pedestrian hit me and went under my car.
- The guy was all over the road; I had to swerve a number of times before I hit him.

- I pulled away from the side of the road, glanced at my mother-in-law and headed over the embankment.

- In my attempt to kill a fly, I drove into a telephone pole.

- I had been shopping for plants all day, and was on my way home. As I reached an intersection a hedge sprang up obscuring my vision. I did not see the other car.

- I had been driving my car for 40 years when I fell asleep at the wheel and had an accident.

- I was on my way to the doctors with rear end trouble when my universal joint gave way causing me to have an accident.

- As I approached the intersection, a stop sign suddenly appeared in a place where no stop sign had ever appeared before. I was unable to stop in time to avoid the accident.

- To avoid hitting the bumper of the car in front, I struck the pedestrian.

- My car was legally parked as it backed into the other vehicle.

- An invisible car came out of nowhere, struck my vehicle and vanished.

- I told the police that I was not injured, but on removing my hat, I found that I had a skull fracture.

- I was sure the old fellow would never make it to the other side of the roadway when I struck him.

- The pedestrian had no idea which direction to go, so I ran over him.

- I saw the slow-moving, sad-faced old gentleman as he bounced off the hood of my car.

- The indirect cause of this accident was a little guy in a small car with a big mouth.

- I was thrown from my car as it left the road. I was later found in a ditch by some stray cows.

- The telephone pole was approaching fast. I was attempting to swerve out of its path when it struck my front end.

- I was unable to stop in time and my car crashed into the other vehicle. The driver and passenger then left immediately for a vacation with injuries.

The writer James in the Bible says: "Behold we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn their whole body. Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth. Even so the tongue is a member and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindeth! The tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature: and it is set on fire of hell.

Travel Information Centres

"Travel Alberta's 15 travel information centres are now in operation." "Last year, the centres handled 178,941 visiting parties. This year, because of Stamp Around Alberta, we anticipated even greater success with the travel information centres program."

Fifty-eight students, who will serve as travel counselors at these information centres, were trained at a three day seminar conducted recently at the Sherwood Park Inn. The counsellors will provide, to travellers in the province, information and counselling services on Alberta's events and attractions, over a three month period.

The province is making great efforts to ensure that visitors to Alberta be warm, western hospitality and good service at our travel information centres.

Vindicated fluoridation

A report released recently by Health and Welfare Minister Monique Begin concludes that the differences in cancer death rates between municipalities are not associated with water fluoridation. The report also shows no significant differences between death rates from all types of cancer within the same municipalities before and after fluoridation.

The study, entitled "Fluoridation and Cancer -- An Analysis of Canadian Drinking Water Fluoridation and Cancer Mortality Data," is based on data from Statistics Canada which has been analysed for the Health Protection Branch.

Today small amounts of fluoride are added to the drinking water supplied to more than 35 percent of the Canadian population in order to decrease the incidence of tooth decay and lower dental care costs. However some doctors and scientists have suggested that epidemiological data show the addition of fluoride to potable water increases the risk of cancer. Official U.S. sources whose data have been used to support such statements claim their data have been misinterpreted.

To determine whether Canadians are exposed to a risk of cancer from the fluoride added to their drinking water, cancer mortality statistics from 79 groups of municipalities were examined closely. Comparisons of death rates from cancer were made between municipalities served with fluoridated water and those served with non-fluoridated water. In addition, comparisons were made for different time periods between 1954 and 1973. All general and malignant tumors and various specific tumor sites were included in these comparisons.

Message from above

While St. Albert came under the force of a sudden hailstorm Monday, Yvon and Ann Bordeleau of 5 Mission Avenue had a free come crashing down on their driveway. Although it may seem a bit tragic, Mr. Bordeleau had just a few minutes earlier moved the family car into the garage from the exact spot.

SENIOR CITIZENS

Seniors who like to play bingo or cards can do so by dropping in at the Senior Citizens Centre every Tuesday at around 1:30 p.m. Cards and bingo are played on alternate Tuesdays. On June 13, cards will be played. It's a good way to spend an enjoyable afternoon and there's always time for socializing over a cup of tea or coffee.

Following is a list of programs which will be offered at the Centre on Thursdays throughout the month of June by the Meals-on-Wheels committee. June 8 - slides on the Commonwealth Games will be presented by Mrs. Cuts. The showing will take approximately one hour.

June 15 - The highlight will be a visit from the children attending the St. Albert Day Care Centre.

June 22 - Mrs. Jensen will be presenting some slides of Tahiti.

June 29 - Hobby Day - This is something that should be interesting to everybody. More about Hobby Day will be said in the coming weeks. But, in the meantime, if you would like more information you can contact Hettie Blades at 459-4756 or Jenny Allan at 459-0472.

These interesting programs follow the hot meal served weekly at the Senior Citizens Centre through the Meals on Wheels program. Everyone is welcome to attend at around 12:30 p.m. For information about the nutritious meals served on Thursday at noon, please contact Hettie Blades at 459-4756 or Jenny Allan at 459-0472.

MAKE THE CUP THAT CHEERS A LITTLE SMALLER

Those who have never touched alcohol and don't intend to can skip this item; this important advice will not affect you.

Nor is it directed to the so-called "problem drinker" who has imbibed too much on a regular basis.

It is for all who think a good meal deserves a good wine, that a relaxing drink or two before dinner perks up the appetite and that there is nothing more refreshing than a couple of cold beers on a hot day.

The advice comes from Dr. Sarah Saunders of the Addiction Research Foundation - cut down on your intake. What is a reasonable, sensible amount for a person of 40 or 50 may be far too much as you head into the 70's.

The reasons are physical. Women as a rule react to alcohol more quickly than men because they have less body water - a little bit goes further. However, as we get older the body-water in both sexes decreases and the amount you used to drink when you were younger will have quite a different effect on you as you get older.

Authorities generally agree that it takes an hour for the liver to break down one ounce of alcohol. This is a healthy liver - but as we get older our livers like the rest of our bodies, are not brand new. It could take longer. And no matter what ploys we use, eating, black coffee, etc., any alcohol taken into the system has to be handled by the liver. Always use a measure, warns Dr. Saunders, so you know just how much you are taking in.

Beer is very high in calories; with a few glasses, some feel they are satisfied, so they tend to eat less. But they are not getting enough of other important nutrients and malnutrition is not uncommon among those who drink too much of any type of alcohol.

Many of the things that trigger the problem drinking happen almost all at once to older people. Retirement comes as a shock to many, even those who have been looking forward to it. There is also having to live on a fixed income, loss of a spouse, a chronic illness - there can and do cause drinking problems in younger people. As people get older sometimes they all happen together.

In older people there is also the sense of isolation with which to cope. Whether or not a man liked his job, he was surrounded by people as a rule, and whether or not they were really close friends, he misses them. The Foundation is trying to involve people in other mind-changing interests that include other people.

For the ordinary social drinker the advice is: cut down gradually on the amount you take, so you will never have enough to make you feel woozy or put too much strain on the only liver you've got.

Local couple joins Foster Parents Plan

The future of a little boy from Yogyakarta looks much brighter, since a St. Albert couple entered his life. Mr and Mrs. Lionel S. Phillips have joined the Foster Parents Plan of Canada and have "adopted" twelve year old Sardi. Their monthly contribution of $19 will be of great assistance, not only to Sardi, but to his family. The $19 a month provides the family with a monthly cash grant or material benefits; free medical and dental care, free prescriptions, the sustained guidance and counselling of social workers and the benefits of many special programs. All Foster Children and their brothers and sisters, age permitting, are encouraged to attend school. Where suitable, vocational training courses are made available, free of charge, for Foster Children, their brothers and sisters, and where practical, their parents. The objective is to provide the family with the tools to help them become independent and self-supporting. All programs are adapted to the needs of each country and later tend to be concentrated in rural areas, where the whole community can benefit, particularly through mass inoculations, etc.

Foster Parents and Foster Children correspond monthly (letters are translated by PLAN) and often develop warm and affectionate relationships which mean as much to the child as the material and financial aid.

Sardi was born in Bendungan, where he now resides. He attends school some 200 meters away from home, and studies arithmetic, history, Indonesian language, sports, singing, religion, civics, zoology, biology and botany.

His mother earns a meagre $6.26 per month at her job as a farmer and vendor of chickens. She and Sardi's father are divorced. Sardi has two sisters, one of whom is married, and a brother.

The family lives in a two-room dwelling divided between kitchen and living area. The bamboo walls hold one window and the floor is of soil. Unlike the families of many foster children, the family has a well and lavatory. They also own a half hectare of land on which the chickens are raised. Family members subsist mainly on a diet of rice and cassava.

Anyone interested in the Foster Parents Plan of Canada can get more information by writing to the Public Relations Department Foster Parents Plan of Canada, 153 St. Clair Avenue West, M4V 1P8.

St. Albert Boxers show class at Edmonton Boys Club

Six St. Albert boxers were featured in an eight bout card on May 27.

While the club ended their season a month ago they came to the Edmonton Boys Club rescue when cancellations from B.C. and Calgary had reduced the card to only two bouts.

It speaks well of our St. Albert boxers that even though they had not trained for a month they won five bouts and were robbed of a split decision in the sixth.

Following is a summary of the bouts:

Michael Richmond [90 lbs.] won over John Brown of Spruce Grove. Clever boxing and excellent counter punching resulted in Michael's fifth win in seven bouts.

Craig Scott [100 lbs.] won over Denton Adler of Fort McMurray. A good left hand and power punching resulted in Craig's third win in four bouts.

Ron Geyer [85 lbs.] won over Shane Gagne of Spruce Grove. This was Ron's first fight and his extensive training and determination showed as he won a clear decision over an experienced opponent.

Peter Richmond [105 lbs.] won over Hyram Tynan of Fort McMurray. This was possibly the best bout on the card as Peter was on the attack from start to finish and hit his opponent with everything but the ring stool. Peter has now won eight of his nine bouts.

Sean Wharton [60 lbs.] won over Randy Mitchell of Spruce Grove. Clean scoring punches and a good offence resulted in Sean's third win in four bouts.

Grant Arneson [85 lbs.] lost to Tom Vanderweir of Spruce Grove via split decision. The judges must have decided it was time for someone other than St. Albert to win a bout because Grant won every round and outboxed his opponent by a wide margin. Grant has now won four of his six bouts.

Manager Del Larsen and Coach Taffy Williams worked the corner while trainers

Pete and Wilf Richmond did their usual excellent job of bandaging the boys hands, providing transportation and attending to the many other details involved.

ON THE NOSE

Ron Geyer came up a winner in his first bout with the St. Albert club.

Hercules hosting Bantam Girls Softball tournament

The St. Albert Hercules Sports Association will host an eight team bantam girls softball tournament this this year and the St. Albert "B" team which is being sponsored by RMC Sports.

Visiting teams will be from Ardrossan, Drayton Valley,

Fort Saskatchewan, Lauderdale Community, Edmonton; McQueen Community, Edmonton and Sherwood Park.

The action starts Saturday morning at nine o'clock at Lorne Akins Junior High with St. Albert Panthers playing McQueen and St. Albert "B" playing Lauderdale.

At 11 o'clock Ardrossan plays Sherwood Park and Fort Saskatchewan plays Drayton Valley.

Territorial Juniors place 2nd in Wainwright

St. Albert Territorial Juniors Fastball Club participated in their first money tournament of the season and came away with $100 for finishing second in the 16-team Wainwright fastball tournament during the weekend.

The Juniors opened the tournament Saturday with a 9-4 win over Armada Const. of Edmonton with Mike Mitchell and Blaine Galbraith sharing the pitching duties. Mitchell had a pair of home runs while team-mate Travis Parayko had one.

The pitching duo of Galbraith and Mitchell were on the mound again and came up with a 11-8 win over the highly regarded Loughheed Stars, who were billed as the team to win the tournament.

The win over Loughheed put the Territorial Juniors into the semi-final and they came up with a close 6-4 win. Steve Lister had a two-run homer in the sixth inning to give the Juniors the win. Galbraith went all the way on the mound for the win.

In the final game the Wainwright Bars handed the Juniors their only loss as they came up with a 4-2 win. Mitchell was the losing pitcher.

The club will be in Winterburn this weekend to take part in the 16-team tournament with a total of $1,600 in prize money.

In league play the Juniors came up with a split in their last two games as they defeated Alexander Tee Pee

Crawlers 11-9 and then lost Monday night to the Stony Plain Kings by a 11-7 score.

Tigers take early lead in AABL

Edmonton Tigers remained the only undefeated team in the Alberta Major Baseball League as they came up with a pair of wins over the weekend at Renfrew Park.

Tigers, behind the four hit pitching of Randy Gregg (2-0), scored a 6-2 win Saturday over the Lac La Biche Dodgers and then gave their hometown fans a 8-2 victory over the winless Stony Plain Dusters Sunday with Ray Brown getting the win.

Gregg and Tim Young had three hits each to lead the Tigers attack.

The Tigers have now won three games and tied one in four league starts.

Dusters have gone five games without a win and are four games behind the Tigers.

MUG SHOT

... Of the two mugs pictured above, the larger, grinning one has the dubious honour of being affixed to the shoulders of Gazette staffer Bob Coles. To the general astonishment of all, Bob did us proud at the Media Shoot Out held last Wednesday to open the new Commonwealth Games Rifle Range. Bob's prowess in the 50 metre rifle event won him the small mug for coming in first with a score of 48 out of 50. To make things double insufferable around the office, another Gazette notable, Duff Jamison, placed high in the Rapid Fire Pistol event, losing by only two points. We knew you could shoot the bull, boys, but we never dreamed you could hit the eyes!

SAMBA Bat Time Stories

as told by Uncle Rick

Needless to say, this past week has been one of PURE ACTION ... and that goes for all divisions - from mosquito to midget. With the warm weather once again gracing our diamonds regular house-league play continued in full force while four St. Albert teams took part in weekend tournaments away from home. Let's take a look and see what happened.

MOSQUITO DIVISION

Coach Larry Olexiuk's Graham Realty Giants have become a "reality" in the Mosquito-B race clubbing their way to three straight victories before racing for shelter in Monday night's hail storm and consequently falling to the Belmont C.U. Bombers in a weather-shortened tangle 10-8.

In their first meeting last week, the Giants machine-gunned the Bombers 29-26 in a slugfest. Other Giant victims were the Gazette Cards 26-8 and Sturgeon Meat Merchants 24-13 with Tom Hinch on the mound.

The Mosquito "team of the week" would have to be the Sturgeon Meat Merchants. The Bernie Poulin-coached aggregation claimed their first wins of the 1978 season and as a result are clinging to the number two spot in B division standings.

The Meat-men minced the Gazette Cards into little pieces 24-23 in Thursday's beautiful weather and Monday accomplished the feat again, this time 13-5 just before the hail pelted down. Belmont's Bombers parachuted to a 16-14 decision over the Meat Marketeers last Tuesday.

Bruce McGlashan and his Safeway Seals continue slithering past opponents in the Mosquito A showdown. Revenge was sweet in a Saturday make-up matchup as the league leaders out-muscled the Melton Mighty Mites 16-13 behind the pitching slants of ace Joel Borle.

The gutsy Seals played with two on the injury list. One of these was top-notch catcher Jim Romerell, out with a broken foot. His spot was taken, very capably, by David LaPlante (son of local hockey-great Al Laplante).

Unfortunately, the Buxton Eager Beavers were forced to default their May 31 tilt with the Seals 5-0 when they were unable to field a full team ... a school outdoor education camp was to blame along with a long-standing league ruling.

Melton's Mighty-Mites maintained the runner-up spot in A Division axing the Lacombe Park Red Roosters tail feathers 14-10.

Stan Black hurled the Nu Westers to a 19-11 levelling of the Sod Busters in a hail-shortened tiff Monday.

The Cubs and Brent Sedgewick outdug the same Sod Busters 28-21 in a make-up rainout contest. Sod Buster Coach Arnold Walter is "still smiling" reports say ... could he have something up his sleeve for the upcoming playoffs? Hmmm, we wonder

BANTAM DIVISION

St. Albert's bantams didn't do so bad at the Rosslyn Tourney over the warm weekend, either. Coaches Norm Heemerick and Roy Malanchen were well pleased with their charges.

Saturday's first battle in the Edmonton annual baseball get-together turned into a walkaway as St. Albert waxed Wellington 16-2.

A veteran ball club from Steele Heights managed to turn the trick over St. Albert to the tune of an 8-1 drubbing. Relief pitcher, Gerry Cleason looked very impressive in his six inning sojourn on the hill.

As fate would have it ... Wellington won the "B" event and Steele Heights was runner-up to Kilkenny 5-3 for the "A" championship.

As for house league results ... excitement is mounting following this week's round of games. In the upset of the week, the Belmont Bronks were sent to the stable by Terry Yost and the Big M Shis-ka-bobers 7-5 ... it was a seventh inning uprising that saved the tough league headlines from a 7-0 shut-out. Several well-placed blows and nifty base running almost, but not quite, allowed the Bronks to save face with a comeback.

However, Belmont bounced back Monday with a 9-2 hoofing of Nu West's Homers. Heavy hitting by batsmen Darryl Tocheniuk, Rob Boddez, and Craig Rusnak spelled doom for the last placers. Rick Komick pitched the win against Nu West but received the credit for the loss to Big M, Wednesday.

St. Albert holds their own in girls field hockey

The first round in the field hockey season finished with St. Albert amongst the leaders with two wins, one tie and two losses.

They got off to a good start as the summer league began on Monday night against Red Penguins with St. Albert up 3-2 when hail caused the game to be abandoned with 20 minutes to play.

Goals were scored by Laurie Darvill (1) and Daphne Sietinga (2).

All games will be played on St. Albert home ground (7:00 at Gatewood Park) Monday, June 12 vs Ptarmigans and Wednesday, June 14 vs Bonnie Doon. The girls would really appreciate your support as they strive to put St. Albert on the field hockey map.

St. Albert Tennis Club News

The club held a very successful Novelty Doubles Night last Friday (May 26) - despite the doubtful weather, over 30 people turned out. Dave Hensen and Anne Kenndy triumphed over all; a good fun evening was had by all. Watch the Clubhouse and Gazette for June's Novelty Night.

Saturday, June 10, the club is holding its picnic-barbecue at Akinsdale Clubhouse, and grounds - Alpine Blvd. commencing at 7 p.m. Bring your own meat, plate and cutlery - the rest will be provided for a small charge. Members and guests welcome. Dancing in the evening. Call Cynthia Sage at 459-7624 to confirm attendance.

Box Lacrosse is an indoor sport, protected from the elements you might think. Not in St. Albert. Once again, local lacrosse teams have been embarrassed by a leaky roof in the Perron Street Arena, which behaves like a sieve in the rain.

This time, last Monday evening, with the St. Albert Bantam Toros locked in an exciting match, down 2-1 in their best performance this year against an Edmonton club, the skies opened up and the boys were soon playing amidst rapidly widening pools of water on the cement floor.

When the rain stopped, Arena staff, officials, and coaches mounted a clean-up operation which wasn't fully effective in restoring safe playing conditions. The officials wisely called off the game, a repeat of a situation encountered last year and thought to have been corrected.

In the first game of the evening, the St. Albert peewee club scored its first win of the season, in an impressive 11-2 game with South Edmonton.

Both St. Albert clubs had just returned from a disappointing weekend in Whitecourt where they each dropped two games against teams of roughly equal calibre. The bantams lost 7-5 and 8-2, with goals scored for the Toros by Chris Lane (2), Dave Holden, Kevin O'Hara, Scott Forsyth, Chris Neumann and Lee Carter.

In the Monday night rainout, Erin Oor scored the only St. Albert marker. This will be the second postponed game against South Edmonton for the bantams, the other when the Arena was used for another function.

Shortly after the Monday game, the local lacrosse associations was also told that a few more games would be pre-empted by a forthcoming rodeo event in the Arena. Lacrosse is having a tough time of it in St. Albert.

Neil's Trailer Kings rolled over the Link Blue Jays 8-4 despite Tom Shipanoff's towering home run to centre. Greg Reiniger chucked the Kings to an 8-6 advantage over Link's Blue Jays. Darren Graden homered for the winners. Bantam "team of the week" honors go to the Nu West Homers of Coach Hadley Williams. Nu West, after a mid-season slump, regained their true form against the Pennington Blasters squeezing by 12-9 in Thursday's tiff ... and coming from behind a 21-4 deficit to put out the Blasters' fuse 22-21. Dean McKinney sparked the losers with a terrific four-bagger to right field ...

NORWEST MIDGET DIVISION

Many thanks to the weatherman ... the Norwest Midget Division managed to continue the playoff fight for the right to be one of the four top standing teams.

Spruce Grove under coach Pete Salisny received credit for a come-from-behind league victory over St. Albert's Cardinals. St. Albert, behind starter Larry Schuchard took a 5-2 lead going into the fifth inning. Schuchard gave up a run on two hits for a 5-3 St. Albert lead as Spruce Grove went to bat in their half of the fifth. Two walks and an error set the stage for relief pitcher Doug Rechlo to come to the mound. Rechlo retired the side allowing but one run.

The first batter up for Spruce Grove in the seventh, after the Cards, had gone scoreless once again, hit a liner to right field. The next batter did likewise. Both runners eventually scored and Spruce Grove had won their first league game 6-5.

After a rather enjoyable weekend mini-tourney at Alexis, where they won one and lost one, the Cardinals were the recipients of a gift win from Alexis when they were unable to return the jaunt Monday night.

In bright sunshine at the Fairview Ball Park Sunday, the Cardinals lost to an experienced Kensington Midget team 16-2 in their initial outing, but concluded the day with a sparkling 18-6 win over the home team, Alexis. Alexis also lost to the St. Albert Willowbrook Saints 18-15. The Saints played excellently against Kensington in the final fray only to lose in the last stanza 6-5.

Other Norwest League results found Alexis spilling Spruce Grove 10-5 and St. Albert's Saints trouncing Alexis 23-3 on Friday night.

TOURNAMENT SQUAWK-TALK

There's a strong possibility that St. Albert could be well represented in the THIRD annual Stettler Triple Tourney come July 1 and 2. All three divisions Mosquito, Beaver and Bantam are expected to have applications in the mail this week. If accepted, it would be a great way to start the summer holidays!

Ben Tooth, Frank Galbraith, Art Balog and Art Rechlo have been burning the midnight oil recently ... and the word is out: St. Albert's Midget will host their FIRST tournament this summer on July 9 and 10. Preparations are being made for an eight team, invitational, baseball get-together.

FROM THE BENCH ...

The second annual "Pay What You Pull" draw is on now ... all SAMBA baseballers have the books in their possession and are looking for your pennies, nickles, dimes, etc. There are some mighty fine prizes being offered ... first prize is a $150 gift certificate from

The Settlement Restaurant in St. Albert. Second prize is another gift certificate from The Settlement for the same amount ($150) ... Third prize is a $75 gift certificate from RMC Sports in the Grandin Shoppers Mall ... Fourth prize is a $75 gift certificate from the St. Albert Sportshop. So ... push-pull click-click ...

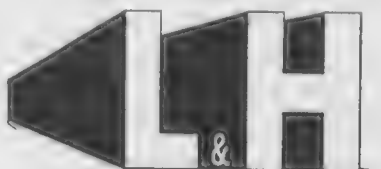

By the way the draw will be held at the Lacombe Park Clubhouse on June 29 ... less than four weeks away ...

Coming up Friday night is the SECOND annual BASEBALL BALL at the St. Albert Community Hall ... it's a social event not to be missed by anyone. All the lovely ladies of the SAMBA Auxiliary have tickets ... none will be sold at the door ... so hurry ... remember Irene Cherkas, SAMBA lady in charge has the information at 459-6963.

Refreshments, prizes, surprises and a welcoming speech from SAMBA prexy Lorne Ross are strong possibilities Friday night ... see you there?

Credit Bert LaBuick, Mosquito boss, for his "heads up" performance during last Monday's hail storm in Mosquito-land. Bert looked up at the cloud formation (one half hour before) with a prediction, "There's ice in them things" ... with only minutes to spare he called a warning for the teams to "pack the gear and get going" ... we hope you didn't get caught in the deluge ...

A song for Monday night might have been ... "Hail, Hail, the gang's all gone" ... no matter what - as we always say - despite Hail and High Water ... "Diamonds are a boys' best friend" - eh Bert?

Saints upset in Alexis tourney final

The Willowbrook Saints Midgets travelled to Alexis on the weekend, and had to settle for second money in a

Last inning homer gives Builders victory Juniors

A seventh inning home run by third baseman, John Prusak, gave LBH Builders a 7-5 victory over the St. Albert Territorial Juniors, in Sturgeon fastball action last Wednesday.

The home run, the second of the game for Prusak, came with one out and catcher Herman Tietz on base. It climaxed what proved to be one of the closest and most exciting games of the year for both teams.

Richard Mercier, in relief of starter Len Grew, took the victory for the Builders, while Blaine Galbraith in relief of starter Mike Mitchell absorbed the loss. Both relievers came up with strong games as the score saw-sawed back and forth until the fifth inning, when a 5-5 score held until the bottom of the seventh.

Galbraith led the Juniors attack with a two-run home-run in the first inning, one of only five hits given up by the Builders' pitching. Builders meanwhile stroked 13 hits. In addition to the two homeruns by Prusak, Wally Cooper had a pair of hits to help the Builders' attack.

On Monday night, Builders took an early 2-0 lead on Native Sons but a heavy rain and hailstorm forced the game to be cancelled in the bottom of the fourth. It was unfortunately particularly for starter Gene Lytwyn, as he retired the first 12 Native Sons, and it looked like a perfect game was in the making.

The game will now have to be re-scheduled and started from the beginning.

Next action for the Builders is Wednesday night against Spruce Grove KC's while Thursday Builders will travel to Stony Plain for a make-up game with the Kings.

four team tournament in baseball action.

The Saints were hard pressed in the opening game, but managed to end up on the right end of an 18-15 score in a match with Alexis. The win put them into the final against the Kensington All-Stars of Edmonton, but a four run rally by Edmonton in the final inning sunk the Saints.

On Friday night in Northwest League action, the locals crushed Alexis to the tune of 21-3.

Saints 21 - Alexis 3

Tim Shipanoff and Byron Bailey combined for a two hitter, while the Saints hammered four Alexis pitchers collecting 22 hits.

Brad Hand smashed a long homerun over the centrefield fence to go along with a single, while Troy Shelemay collected three safeties.

Brent Galbraith also had three hits including a triple, and Brad McKeage came through with two.

It was all over after the Saints struck for 10 runs in the second inning. Bernie Joyal, Rob Tooth, and Lorne Jacobsen also hit safely twice.

Saints 18 - Alexis 15

Alexis threw a scare into the Saints in the tournament opener in a game that was quite loosely played at times. Shipanoff picked up the win in relief.

BRAD HAND
Power at the Plate

Galbraith led the hitting attack with two doubles and two singles in five trips to the plate, while Brad Hand collected three safeties in addition to a couple of walks.

Dean Pollard's two run homer over the left field fence in the fifth inning put the Saints ahead to stay.

Kensington 6 - Saints 5

A three run homer by Edmonton's T. Mageppa in the top of the seventh turned what looked like a St. Albert win into a tough loss.

The Willowbrook boys backed superb pitching by Shipanoff with errorless "heads up" ball for six innings, and appeared to have their hands on the tournament win. Edmonton struck for two first inning runs, but walks to Greg Foster, Hand, and successive doubles by Rob Tooth, Pollard, and Shipanoff resulted in three St. Albert runs.

BRENT GALBRAITH
Swinging Hot Bat

Galbraith opened the third with a single and Hand drew a base on balls. Fly balls by Tooth and Pollard scored the Saints fourth run. Galbraith and Hand duplicated their efforts in the fifth, and Pollard drove in the fifth run with a single.

Kensington got their rally started in the seventh on an infield error and a walk. Shipanoff fanned the next two hitters, before an out-field error and the long blast well over the right field fence gave Edmonton the margin of victory.

Saints Greg Foster pulled off the defensive gem of the game with a diving catch on a line drive, while Tooth pulled the old hidden ball trick at second on a Kensington base runner.

The Saints host Spruce Grove tomorrow night at the Mission diamond, and will participate in a tournament in Edmonton this coming weekend.

Cannons win two by shut out

The most scored upon team in the St. Albert Bantam Soccer House League put its act together defensively last week and shut out both the Bullets and the Bombers.

Player-of-the-week Brian Bakker was outstanding in goal for the Bullets in their match with the Cannons. The score, which ended up 1-0, could have gone much higher were it not for his efforts.

In their other win the Cannons pumped three goals past the second place Bombers.

Other league action saw the Bullets win two more games and remain undefeated. They knocked off the Rockets 4-0 Tuesday and then outscored the Bullets 6-2 Thursday.

The Arrows lost 2-1 to the Bombers and then had a game with the Rockets postponed to a later date.

Pellet scores continue to lead in the points race. Stephen Livingstone is on top with 15 goals and six assists for 21 points. He is closely followed by Steven Ball who has 10 goals and eight assists.

Willowbrook Rangers record win

Rangers four points.

Earlier in the week St. Albert dropped a match 7-1 to undefeated Crestwood and lost 6-1 in a make-up game with Kilkenny.

The Rangers are still not playing as a team and are not following their plays through.

Coach Dieter Knobloch says the boys are not anticipating plays, a skill which enables players to get the jump on their opponents. As he put it, "soccer is 80 percent head and only 20 percent feet."

The Crestwood match was a near repeat of an earlier 7-0 defeat of the Rangers. The strong Crestwood club made the game a no-contest affair and at this point in the season it looks like they will definitely be the team to beat in the finals.

Wood leads Labatt Grand Prix

From rookie of the year to Labatt Championship Series winner in one season?

That's a feat that not even two time series champion Gilles Villeneuve was able to accomplish, but 21 year old Jeff Wood from Studio City, Ca. wants to do just that.

Less than nine months ago, Wood was running a solid fourth in the first Labatt Grand Prix de Quebec when he spun on fluid dumped on the track by another car with two laps left in the race. He dropped to eighth in the finishing order but that was still enough to give him the rookie honours.

Now he holds a share in the lead of the Ford driver point standings as the Labatt Championship Series for Formula Atlantic cars heads to its third race at the Parc de l'exposition in Quebec City on June 9-11, 1978.

What makes the feat even more remarkable is that Wood is in only his third year of motor racing. After racing a Formula Ford in California in 1976, he chose the Labatt series in '77 to find out whether he had the necessary talent to be a successful racing driver.

He had more than his share of spins and mechanical problems last year, but he still wound up with the rookie title and with the knowledge that he could hold his own among some of the best young, up and coming racing drivers in the world.

Bolstered by that, he decided on a full scale effort for the 1978 season, purchasing two March 78Bs. What is just as important, he hired a top flight mechanic to look after his team. New Zealander Dave White has been involved in Formula Atlantic for the past couple of years, but before that, was chief mechanic for the March Formula One Grand Prix team.

The new alliance demonstrated its effectiveness at the Long Beach opener for the 1978 Labatt series. There Wood took fourth place, following it up by qualifying on the pole at Westwood, B.C. and then finishing second in the race, after holding off the pressure of Long Beach race winner

Howdy Holmes for much of the 56 lap contest.

With over 30 cars expected to be fighting for starting spot on the 2.1km course that winds its way through the exposition grounds, the second Labatt Grand Prix de Quebec should be just as exciting as last year's inaugural race, in which Gilles Villeneuve wrapped up his second straight Canadian Driving Championship.

Calgary Mini Stocks at Cobra Raceway

The first half of the Stereo Barn Trophy series came to a happy conclusion at least for one man, Bryan Kutryk of Edmonton, who seems to be winning all of the races as of late, did so again last Saturday. Finishing second in the feature event was an old claimer jock, moved up to stock, Lloyd Anderson

Backpackers need permits

Backcountry campers in the mountain national parks will have their freedom restricted when over-crowding threatens this summer, William C. Turnbull, Parks Canada's regional director warned.

Mr. Turnbull said some trails in the mountain parks are "being camped and hiked to death" and require protection from overuse. "Faced with the heavy increase in backcountry use, park managers feel that nature needs a helping hand to restore a score of ailments stemming from overuse, and the permit is one form of assistance," he added.

The no-charge permit system will control crowding and inhibit environmental deterioration by giving park staffs the authority to re-direct overnight campers and horse riders to lightly-used trails and sites. Day hikers will not be affected by the new regulations.

Besides giving nature a chance to repair bald spots, camp fire scars, run-down trails and sites, the new regulation will give park managers an opportunity to halt conflicts between too many campers, horses and hikers, stop the spread of multiple trails, improve over-burdened sanitary facilities and generally try and restore some of the isolation that makes use of the backcountry so worthwhile and enjoyable.

This is how the new system works - all overnight backcountry users need a permit to engage in their particular activity, whether it's simple hiking, horse-riding, an overnight climbing trip or a fishing expedition. The control system, or re-directing visitor traffic operation, will only be introduced when park staffs detect damage from overuse on a trail.

Permits will be necessary at all times for backcountry journeys lasting overnight or longer and they will be issued free of charge on a first come-first served basis. "Capacity loads are being set for trails - they can only stand so much damage - and when we feel that capacity has been reached, we will direct visitors to other parts of the park. It's not a question of running out of space for people to hike or camp in some isolated area, but one involving clumps of campers and their wear-and-tear on the most popular trails," said Mr. Turnbull.

Egypt Lake in Banff and the Tonquin Valley in Jasper need time to heal and reducing visitor use will help those areas. Pilot schemes involving use permits have been tried in Jasper, Yoho and Kootenay parks in the last two years and proved popular with visitors who were steered away from crowded areas.

Another change affecting backcountry users involves the registration of a trip. Previously, Parks Canada has insisted that visitors involved in a hazardous activity indicate on a form where they're headed, the likely duration, and the form of activity. The method allowed rescue operations to be mounted failing a hiker's or climber's indication to the park that a trip had been safely concluded.

The mandatory aspects of registering in and out have now been dropped and the onus placed on the backcountry user for his own safety. Backcountry users may voluntarily tell park staffs trip details and return times so that help can be sent if it's indicated. But if they sign out, they will be compelled to sign in - or risk being charged for failing to notify park wardens they are safely out of the backcountry.

This voluntary system of registering potentially hazardous trips is in effect in Banff, Jasper, Kootenay and Yoho national parks - where the paper work in keeping track of visitors has been enormous, time-consuming and expensive. In the less busy Waterton Lakes, Mount Revelstoke and Glacier national parks, the superintendents will continue to insist on compulsory registration.

St. Albert Sportshop Angels go fighting

On the weekend of June 3 and 4 the St. Albert Sportshop Angels travelled to Dovercourt Community League to play in their tournament.

They lost their opening game to Camrose and then had to fight their way back. They took on Bon Accord on Saturday afternoon and won that one. They then came up against their rivals from Fort Saskatchewan Sunday morning. They came out slugging, winning this one by a 11 to 1 score.

They then took on the Hazeldean Aces of Edmonton winning this one after a hard fought battle, 18 to 13. The Angels then went into their third game of the day against another Edmonton team from Beacon Heights. They did get a early jump on them but couldn't hold on to their lead, losing this one 18 to 13.

The heat of the day and the fact that they were playing with only nine players throughout the tournament was just a little to much for the girls.

St. Albert should be proud of the sportsmanship the girls showed. Although they lost in the semi finals in the hearts of their fans they were winners.

Shannon Erickson and Jackie Anderson were the pitchers for the team. Shannon pitched over 20 innings with Jackie relieving on the rest.

Norine Jerke caught most of the games with Jackie filling in the odd inning. The balance of the Angels line-up were Terry Smith - 1st base, Karen Bougeois - shortstop and 2nd base, Carolyn Jones - 3rd base, Helen McCready - centrefield and 2nd. Janet

The coaches Frank Vettergreen and Ron Bjerko were proud of the way the girls represented St. Albert and are looking forward to their next tournament which will be June 16, 17 and 18 here in St. Albert.

Wife: "So THAT'S why you never bought me any clothes!"

Display are part of the Grand Prix entertainment package. Tickets are available at the door with $2 for adults and $1

As part of the highlight activities of the Northlands Horse Show, the Edmonton Exhibition presents the Grand Prix on Friday, June 9 at 8 p.m. in the Edmonton Gardens. Here the Grand Prix brings together some of the top riders and horses in North America vying for a purse of $5,000 added.

Heading the list of riders is Frank Selinger, one of the top equestrian competitors in Canada on Branch Country, Country Rose and Clinton Country. Another rider, Bo Mearns, one of the most popular and personable horse woman is handling the Flying Nun, the winning horse in the Grand Prix with Bo in Edmonton, Calgary and Red Deer.

Also, in addition to the equestrian competition, the Klondike Posse Musical Ride and Al Oeming's Alberta Game Farm Heavy Horse for children 12 and under.

The Grand Prix is an event of crowd-pleasing drama as horses and riders are pushed to the ultimate of their physical and mental abilities over a tough challenging course. Competitors are required to jump two separate rounds over a course consisting of a variety of obstacles, each of which poses a different problem. Horses are faulted for knocking down obstacles. The faults accumulated over both rounds are added together with the horse having the least faults being declared the winner.

The Northlands Horse Show begins Saturday, June 3 and runs through Sunday, June 18. This event presents seven feature breeds competing in various classes with the highlight of the Grand Prix on Friday, June 9 at 8 p.m. in the Edmonton Gardens. Be choosy about life jackets say Mounties

Part of a Series of articles on boating by K Division
RCMP

You may be contemplating the purchase of life saving equipment. There are three types which are available to you: lifejackets, personal flotation devices, and cushions. In order to assist you in making the decision as to which will serve your needs, the following information will be of assistance:

LIFEJACKETS

These jackets are designed to keep an unconscious or totally relaxed person floating face upward. They have a tendency to be bulky and uncomfortable to wear; however, they provide the safest flotation because of stability and ability to keep your head out of the water.

PERSONAL FLOTATION DEVICES

These devices are designed to keep a conscious person afloat. They are generally lightweight and comfortable to wear. They are not as stable as the lifejacket and do not have the inherent tendency to keep an unconscious person floating face up. Because of the comfort feature it is usually worn whereas the lifejackets are usually found shoved under seats or in the bow of a boat.

CUSHIONS

These devices are designed to be strapped on, used for extra buoyancy, or as throwing devices in a rescue situation. It is not recommended that this type of equipment be used in lieu of a life jacket or personal flotation device.

Remember, only M.O.T. approved jackets, personal flotation devices or cushions may be used on board your vessel.

"Don't take high school heritage from us" says Redwater mayor

There was strong support in evidence to keep the Redwater High School at a meeting attended by close on 200 people in the school gymnasium this week.

That was mainly clear when Mayor of Redwater Alex Konasewich told Sturgeon school board trustees that the school had been around for 20 years and he did not want to see that heritage taken away from the town.

The meeting June 1 had been called by the Sturgeon School Division to discuss future facilities and programs for the Redwater High School with Redwater attendance area residents.

The Redwater High School and Elementary School fell into the Sturgeon School Division's jurisdiction when part of Thorhild County was annexed to Sturgeon some months ago.

Any possibility that the Redwater school might be shut down was firmly stomped on by one resident who said: "We have a damn fine staff, we have a damn fine community and we'd like to keep our damn fine school, and if you can give us a few frills we'd be grateful."

The Sturgeon School Division had also planned to hold a "referendum" at the meeting. Those attending the meeting were to be asked to fill in with a yes or no, an answer to the question: "Assuming that high school program offerings at Redwater will generally remain the same into the foreseeable future, and that Redwater students would not have access to the Sturgeon Composite High School, do you favour the continued operation of the Redwater High School?"

But a resident managed to hold the "referendum" at bay saying that the people needed more time to study the Redwater School question. "We need to chew it over ... and then come back."

This led to Chairman of the Sturgeon School Division Lois Hole changing the plans by announcing the questionnaire would be sent to Redwater attendance area residents and they could mail their reply back to the division.

Included in the questionnaire would be more detailed alternatives for future facilities and programming.

In attendance at Morinville on June 19 will be Hon.

Hugh Horner, deputy Premier and Minister of Transportation; Hon. Bob Bogle, Minister responsible for Native Affairs; Hon. Julian Koziak, Minister of Education; Hon. Dick Johnston, Minister of Municipal Affairs and MLA Ernie Jamison.

the public. At Morinville, Mayor Art Stapleton will chair the public meeting. Written and verbal briefs will be accepted and the Ministers will reply. The same format will be used at Legal, with Mayor Marcel Dube chairing the meeting.

The Provincial Government is most anxious to hear the concerns of area residents and invites individuals, elected municipal people, school trustees, farm organizations, recreation boards, Senior Citizens, native groups and others to submit their concerns, written or verbal, to the meeting.

Sturgeon Composite High has "the spirit"

A copy of the first edition of "The Spirit," a newspaper published by students at Sturgeon Composite High School in Namao came across my desk and I was intrigued by the future possibilities of a publication of this type. In the editorial on the front page, Debbie Molineaux states that there will hopefully be one more issue escaping from the press later on this month. It will be interesting to see what this paper will present next term, providing there is enough interest.

The format of the first issue provides for easy reading and the content of most of the articles appear to be fairly competent and content.

The format of the first issue provides for easy reading and the content of most of the articles appear to be fairly competent and interesting. I particularly liked the article on page three which deals with the problems suffered by the students inhabiting the new facilities.

Another interesting article has various opinions on women's liberation, exposing some fairly emotional ideas. Included in the pages of The Spirit are various cartoons by Master Cartoonist Pat McCarthy, a few photographs, poems, quizzes and chuckles.

Assistant editor is Cindy Myson, who with editor are supervised by staff advisor and chief censor Mr. G. Thomas. Others who helped out with this first issue are: Fred Hutchings, Ron Zuk, Glenn Byer, Greg Witham and David Ostowich. I congratulate the students on this very presentable first effort, and hope that we will see more of them in the future.

Big barley - big blast

During the weekend near Bon Accord, the Big Barley Rodeo Association held its annual rodeo.

Winning the all-round cowboy title for '78 was Vance Johnner of Namao.

Bareback riding saw some close competition as Daryl Harrison of Edmonton squeezed by Gary De Rudder of St. Albert 72 to 71 in points.

Calf roping also was extremely close as Roy Frank of Stony Plain edged out Doug Lang of Jarvie 16:1 to 16:2 seconds.

Two brothers came in first and second in the Steer Riding Open event. Vern MacDonald scored 80 for his ride while brother Casey rode his steer for a score of 72. The Wild Horse race was furious action as the McKay team from St. Paul topped its mount before the Hehr team even came close.

In Barrel racing the junior title went to Michelle Gottenshof of St. Paul, the over 45 title to Steve Trach, the open event to Lonnie Shulko of Smoky Lake and the Ladies Barrel to Susan Troch of Two Hills.

The Open Saddle Bronc competition had St. Lina resident Arthur Boyd edge out Clark Jackson of Minburn 75 to 73.

The Junior Saddle Bronc competition went to the horses as none of the young cowboys finished atop their mounts at the end of the 10 second time limit.

Dale Simpson and Robin Waigston beat out 14 other teams to take home the Team Roping trophy.

By Norma Crozier
Sturgeon Composite High School held its first Graduation on Friday, May 26, 1978 for a graduating class of 124 students. Graduation exercises took place in the gymnasium at 4 p.m. beginning with class pictures. Mistress of ceremonies for the afternoon was Tess Meyer. The school band played the theme from "Mahogany" for the parade of graduates. After they were seated Pam Henry sang the theme, accompanied by Colleen Maine on the piano. After singing "O Canada," the invocation was conducted by Rev. H. Black and Father Roche. Mr. A. J. Taylor, principal, addressed the graduates, wishing them the best as they start out in careers or go on to further their education. He introduced the graduates and with the help of Carolyne Hutchings, presented them with their certificates. The valedictory address was ably given by Carolyn Hutchings, followed by the Grad song 78! The song was composed and sung by Carol Wilson, who accompanied herself on her guitar. The students, teachers and parents were at the Edmonton Inn at 7 p.m. for a banquet and dance. After the introduction of the head table guests everyone enjoyed a smorgasbord supper and the program following. The historian's speech was given by Sandy Budzinski after which Carol Wilson sang her song again. A tribute to the Class of 78! was composed and sung by teachers Mr. Thomas, Mrs. Shrum and Miss Miller, after which dancing began to the music of Nite Lite.

wishes to all the graduating students as they begin a new phase of life.

FINE ARTS FESTIVAL

Parents and friends were entertained at Namao on Thursday evening, June 1 at the Fine Arts Festival presented by the Namao Junior High students. Master of ceremonies, Greg Gibson introduced the Junior High Starter Band which played four selections under the direction of Miss P. Wiese. This group has only been playing together since February first.

Four themes in dance, western, disco, graffiti and jazz were presented through the evening by the modern dance club. Costumes, lighting and choreography were arranged by the girls in the group and thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present. A flute solo "Air" played by Lisa Nelsen was very well done.

Following intermission the audience was entertained with six selections by the Junior High Advanced Band. For an encore a rousing version of "When The Saints Go Marching In" had the audience clapping and singing along.

The Choral Club sang two beautiful selections, "You Light Up My Life," and "A Time For Us."

"Curses Foiled Again," by the Drama class under the direction of Mrs. M. Zmurko, invited cheers, boos and hisses from the audience in this delightful melodrama.

Congratulations to all the students who worked so hard to present this thoroughly enjoyable program.

Get well wishes go out to three Namao district residents: Mrs. Maude McDonnell, recovering from surgery; Bruce Carruthers, from a fall; and Karen Crozier with a broken arm and dislocated shoulder. Better health to all very soon.

Fred Marsh, Chairman of the Alberta Provincial Air Cadet League, presented Col. D. Garland with a plaque to be placed on the trainer commemorating the donation by the league, North West Industries Ltd., and #533 Squadron St. Albert.

HOE-GRASS

If you can count on only a few good spraying days when your crops are just coming up, get rid of wild oats plus green foxtail, Persian darnel and barmyard grass all in one sweep.

PRIZE LISTS & EXHIBITS

Are you planning to enter some of your crafts, garments or baked products in the fair? I certainly hope you are. Why? Because there are many reasons to do so. Let's take a look at why individuals enter competitions:

- 1) For self-satisfaction in showing one's work to others
- 2) For Educational benefits from viewing the work of others.
- 3) For Community Support by participating in community activities.

PREPARING FAIR ENTRIES

For your own interest and that of your fair you will want to observe the following:

- 1) Read the prize list carefully and observe details such as number of cookies, etc. to be exhibited.
- 2) Display your entry to advantage making certain it is clean and neat.
- 3) Have entries in on time.

Vanier students take to the stage!

Three very entertaining plays are being prepared for presentation by the students of George P. Vanier.

On Wednesday, June 14, the community is invited to enjoy this program. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

The plays being featured are "High Window," "The Mother of Jack the Ripper" and "Once Upon A Playground."

"High Window" concerns the death of the late Warren Winthrop, a wealthy businessman who fell to his death from a high window. An unfortunate accident. Or was it?

"The Mother of Jack the Ripper" takes place in foggy London, where the Ripper is methodically taking the lives of local "ladies of the night." The play furnishes a clue to the identity of the famous Jack the Ripper.

"Once Upon a Playground" is a comedy which laughs at kids and their antics on a playground.

Come and see some talented Morinville students put on a show! It should be a great evening. Admission only $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for junior students.

Games committee extends thanks

Dr. Paul Underwood, chairman of the Commonwealth Games Committee in Morinville, extends a vote of thanks to all those people in this community who assisted in any way with the plans to have Morinville as a host town during the coming Commonwealth Games in Edmonton.

As a result of appeals to the community through Operation Open-Door, there will be Commonwealth visitors staying at some homes in Morinville. Since the Department of Education is opening the Edmonton schools as hostels to the thousands of children visiting the games this summer, it will not be practical to accommodate groups in the Morinville Historical and Cultural Centre as originally planned.

It appears that campground facilities nearer to the sites of the games should adequately accommodate the visitors, thus decreasing the demand for the use of Heritage Lake. When the Morinville Commonwealth Games Committee looked at Heritage Lake as a potential campsite this action proved to be a catalyst in the development of plans for the future recreational use by the community of this area. These plans for the future development of Heritage Lake will continue under the supervision of the Morinville Recreation Board.

When the several clubs and committees in Morinville were approached as to the possibilities of our town taking part in this small way, it was accepted as a challenge and investigated thoroughly by several willing community members. This executive thanks you.

K of C's honor Father Primeau

By Margaret Yacyshen

Father George Primeau was honored on Sunday, May 28 at a Steak Breakfast which was sponsored by the Morinville Knights of Columbus. Members of the Knights of Columbus and their families, numbering about one 125 people, were in attendance.

Father Primeau was presented with a plaque by Grand Knight Paul Froment. This gift was a token of appreciation for all of his services as Chaplain to the Knights of Columbus as well as parish pastor for 12 years. Mr. Froment also discussed Father Primeau's participation in community activities such as helping to organize Frontier Daze and working to establish St. Jean Baptiste Church as an historical site.

Paul Krauskopf, financial secretary gave a talk in which he paid tribute to Father Primeau's involvement with the youth in Morinville. Mr. Krauskopf gave some personal reflections on how he remembered Father Primeau coming to the parish 12 years ago and how he has worked with the young people over those years.

ART CLUB MEETING

Attention all members of the Morinville Art Club! There will be an important meeting in view of programming for the summer and fall sessions. This will be held on Monday, June 12 at 7:45 p.m. in the club room of the Historical and Cultural Centre.

Anyone still interested in joining the club is welcome to do so by attending this meeting.

Parents of children who will be starting school in September and who are presently not attending kindergarten are asked to contact Notre Dame school at 939-4020 as soon as possible.

Senior citizens in the Morinville area may apply for residence in the Lions Club Sponsored Self-Contained Apartments. Application forms are available at Morinville Hardware and Beaver Lumber.

KINSMEN BIKE-A-THON

The Kinsmen Club held its second annual bike-a-thon last Saturday but the response was somewhat disappointing to club members. A total of 30 riders took part. It was hoped that there would have been a greater turnout especially from various clubs of which only two were represented.

The club would like to thank all those who participated as well as the merchants of Morinville who donated toward the prizes. A special thank you is extended to Bob Arnold for his help.

All riders are asked to turn their pledge money in to Morinville Hardware by June 15. Prizes will be awarded to the winners at the Kinsmen wind-up night on June 27. The top boy and girl will each receive a 10 speed bicycle. There will be prizes for second place finishers as well. All winners will be notified ahead of time.

The Pedal Pushers program, sponsored by the Kinsmen Club, is now finished and the best riders will receive awards. These will be presented at the Kinsmen wind-up night on June 27.

Logan Fabricators, which recently opened in Morinville, is specializing in pre-finished custom kitchen cabinets and finishing carpentry. The shop is located at 10019 - 100 Street (north of the IGA) and is open from 7 a.m. - 4 p.m. Monday thru Friday. Bob Logan, manager, may be contacted for orders or inquiries at 939-2999 during business hours or at 939-2297 after hours.

The teachers from G. P. Vanier and Camilla schools recently met for a Slow-Pitch challenge match. The matching black t-shirts worn by the Riviere Qui Barre Flys proved to be no asset as their team was defeated 24-21 by the Vanier Coyotees after nine innings of play. The Vanier teachers got off to an early start by scoring 10 runs in the first inning.

Anyone with news items is asked to contact Margaret Yacyshen at 939-3047, Mail Box 100, Morinville or stop in at 9715 - 99A Avenue.

Mothers and daughters enjoy Brownie banquet

The 1st Morinville Brownie Pack held their mother and daughter banquet on May 24. They had a good turnout in which everyone enjoyed themselves. MC was Mrs. Judith Clarke who spoke on the importance of guiding. Mrs. Clarke was presented with gifts from the Brownies and from the Mother's Local Mrs. MacDonald for all the time and work she has put in over the years.

Special guest was Mrs. Dorothy Russell from Redwater who gave a talk on being a Brownie. Gifts were presented to last years Local.

They would like to thank all the ladies who served a very beautiful meal which everyone enjoyed. Four of the Brownies were presented awards for all the work they have done during the year.

The girls who achieved the most were Karen McElligott and Sherry Wright. The girl showing the most initiative was Julie Lester, while the all around girl chosen by the other girls was Sonia Uneau.

Brown Owl - Mrs. C. Kubica presented gifts to her leaders, Lois McElligott and Irene Locher for all the time and work they put in throughout the year. Then gifts and badges were presented to the Brownies. Brown Owl and her leaders wish all the girls to have a real nice summer and hopes to see you all in the fall.

Thanks are extended from Mrs. Judith Clarke to all the Brownies of the 1st Morinville Pack for the lovely tote bag. Mrs. Clarke says she enjoyed all the activity and fellowship which she shared with all the "daughters" over the years. She will miss each and everyone.

The Mother's Local would like to take this time to send a special thank you to the Morinville Kinsmen for their part in helping the Brownies out with the bus and driver in order for the girls to attend the special camp held last Sunday, May 28. Also we would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kyle for their time taken away from their home to go with the girls for the whole day. So from us all we would like to say Thank You.

Services held for Alan Majeau

The Rev. Anthony Sebastian OFM officiated at the Mass of Resurrection for Alan Richard Majeau at St. Albert Roman Catholic Church on Wednesday, May 31, 1978 at 10:30 a.m. Mr. Majeau lost his life in a tragic vehicle accident on May 26.

Music for the service included Amazing Grace, a special request of his widow. Pallbearers were two nephews, Wade Reynolds and Richard Majeau, and four cousins, Harvey, Hector, Raymond and Glen Majeau. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Following the service luncheon was served at the home of Raymond and Jeanette Majeau in Edmonton.

Ted Majeau was born November 16, 1950 and grew up in Calahoo in the farm home his parents had purchased in 1935. Prior to that his parents had made their home at Green Willow. His paternal grandparents, the

ALAN RICHARD MAJEAU

Eli Majeaus were early settlers in the Noyes Crossing district and his maternal grandparents, the Robert Vaders, settled first at Rich Valley.

After completing his schooling at Calahoo and Riviere Qui Barre, Mr. Majeau began working in the construction and pipeliner fields and his work took him to a great many centres in Alberta, Manitoba and British Columbia. At the time of his death he was employed with Dillingham at Fort Saskatchewan.

He was an avid hockey player and fond of sports but unable to spend much time at them after he began working. Ted was married to Lynn Dunlop of Cadomin, Alberta, on March 16, 1974 and the couple made their first home in Edmonton. Last summer they built a new home in Calahoo and were getting involved in the various community activities.

Lynn and the couple's daughter Tammy were both injured in the accident, but both are home and making good progress now.

Mr. Majeau will be sadly missed in the Calahoo community and beyond, by a host of friends and a large closely-knit family.

He is survived by his wife Lynn, son Rodney, daughter Tammy, his mother, one brother and two sisters. He was predeceased by his father and two brothers.

its greater slate of programs at Grades 10-12 has now come into the view of Redwater residents has led to the feeling by some residents that they were being discriminated against. Hence the request for more "frills" on the Spartan curriculum at the Redwater High School.

There was also talk from one parent that some Redwater children attending the Composite High School at Namao had been ostracised.

"A lot of kids drop out because of ostracism," the parent said.

There was also opposition to Redwater students attending the Sturgeon Composite High School because of the time taken in busing.

One parent suggested: "Why not move your kids out here ... so we can have a higher enrolment?"

Chairman Hole outlined all the public discussion that had taken place to find out if Sturgeon residents wanted the Namao high school facility. She said to go back to the people and ask: "Will you consent to have your students out to Redwater? ... I just don't know what the answer would be."

"It would be no!" came the retort from the floor.

The question of enrollment was touched on by Associate Superintendent of the division Walter Heppeler.

He said he wanted to inject reality into the frills and told the audience that nowadays "One hundred homes will produce eight high school students ... this is what the pill is doing to school enrollment."

He said enrollment would peak by 1979 then decline by 1982 and "we will need a tremendous growth rate to overcome the gaps."

Earlier in the meeting trustee for Redwater Ruth Wall told the audience that the Redwater High School would be improved by building a new wing on the present structure from kindergarten to grade six, with other renovations and the closure of the two out-buildings.

She was given a "here, here" by one member of the audience.

Chairman Hole started the meeting telling the people, "the sole purpose of the meeting tonight is to find out what you want."

She was immediately told that Redwater was going to grow and "I'd like to look into the future a bit," from the floor.

Mrs. Hole replied: "No matter what we as a board decide what should be done, everything should go through the Department of Education and they are the ones who will tell us what to build."

She added: "We have only had Redwater for a matter of months and we intend to ... consider all areas of concern ... maybe we should have held the meeting a little sooner."

There were some snarling retorts from the floor not long after this like, "We want a high school here, you know that, you do not have to ask us." Also, "We do not want our kids bused up and down."

Then: "You tell us what we can get, we'll tell you whether we want it."

Later, on the question of busing, Chairman of the Transportation Committee John McDonnell said there would be no busing within Redwater, unless it met the government's one and a half mile regulations.

Mrs. Hole, asked if Sturgeon could put on extra courses at Redwater, said that it would be pretty difficult at a school the size of Redwater.

It seems there will be an attempt to clean up and improve the playground equipment at Redwater as well as maintenance.

When Sturgeon took over the school, it was found that there were 155 items of maintenance there, one of the worst in the division, till the improvements were made.

As the meeting ended, it seemed there were no regrets that Redwater had gone into the Sturgeon camp.

The meeting was also attended by Keith Everitt, Bon Accord, Don Hood, Horse Hill, Joyce Porsild, Gibbons, Superintendent Frank Robinson, and Jim McDermott, assistant secretary treasurer.

Get Shell's new MATAVEN*
at UGG, and virtually eliminate wild oats in your Wheat.

New, flexible Mataven devastates wild oats. If sprayed accurately anywhere from the 3-leaf to shot blade stage, it should kill 90% of all wild oats outright. Mataven leaves the rest shrivelled, unable to compete with your crop—unable to produce seed that will plague you next year

It is effective when the wild oats are most active, so you use it only "when you see the whites of their eyes." Then you know whether you really have a wild oat problem and you don't spend money on "maybe" conditions. Also, you don't spend money incorporating Mataven—just spray it on.

Mataven has all of the advantages of its popular older brother, Endaven*.

You don't have to be too fussy about which day to spray Mataven: you usually have most of the month of June as the wild oats develop all the way from their 3-leaf to shot blade stages.

ENDAVEN* has special advantages

- * Use Endaven on rape when the wild oats are anywhere from the 4-leaf to 6-leaf stage.
- * Endaven can be mixed with Carbyne if you want to spray wheat between the 2-leaf and 3-leaf stage.
- * Many farmers have been getting excellent results with Endaven killing wild oats in wheat and rape for years. It's a proven friend.

Mataven flexibility includes freedom from weather worries. Even if rain or shine comes, Mataven works Mataven has been tested 5 years on every kind of wheat (including spring, durum and winter wheats), and it works on all, except Selkirk. The average yield increase has been over 40%! If you want 40% more wheat, with an easily-applied chemical destroying wild oats, get Mataven at UGG. Every pail treats 10 acres.

At UGG, supplies of Mataven are good, and the price is always fair.

KINSMEN HARD AT WORK

With the Redwater Summer Carnival on your agenda for this weekend, we thought that it would be a good idea to show you four guys who put in a lot of work to make this year's fair possible. While all of these gentlemen had many duties to attend to, they basically looked after one major part of the carnival. Sandy Boychuk, on the left, is Parade Chairman this year, next to him is Will Schamber, who is Carnival Chairman, and that's Larry Chekarda hard at work planning the raffle, which features a Yamaha motorcycle, (provided by E & S Motorcycle). Last but not least is Ken Anderson, who is Tractor Pulling Chairman. Isn't it great to know there are people out there like Will, Ken, Larry and Sandy helping your community.

Kinsmen Carnival all set to go this weekend

Wilf Schamber, chairman of this year's Summer Carnival, told the Gazette that everything is "go," and most problems have been overcome. He speculated that it should be a bigger and better carnival than before, and encourages the people of Redwater and area to take in this fun weekend in Redwater. Following is a quick run down on the activities taking place this weekend.

Thursday night the parade will wind its way from the Burger Baron past Mayfair Foods to the Hotel, where it will turn towards the Legion, and then turn again and make its way to the Multi-plex. The parade will start lining up beside Beaver Lumber at 6:00, so if you are interested in participating please try to be there on time. Plaques will be given to the best overall entry, the most original entry, and the best junior entry.

The midway is already being set up, and should be underway by time the culmination of the parade officially opens the carnival.

The tug-of-war will be held following the parade on Thursday evening. There will be six people to a team and cleats and spiked shoes are not allowed. Registrations will be accepted up to the time of the contest. There will be t-shirts given as prizes.

Shortly after the tug-of-war, the egg catching contest will get underway as people will try their hand at the intricate skill of throwing and catching raw eggs. You can register right up until the time of the contest. Prizes of t-shirts will be awarded to the winners.

Entries for the tractor pull will be accepted up until Friday noon. So far only six entries have been confirmed, although some 15 or 20 others have expressed interest. The different classes are determined by the weight of the tractors which will weigh-in throughout the morning of June 9. The actual contest will get underway at 2 p.m. that afternoon.

Also on Friday, the baseball tournament will get underway at 6:30 p.m. with the Oilfield playing Harry's Hounds. The hot air balloonist, John Bauman of St. Albert will also make an appearance Friday night and on Saturday. The baseball tournament continues all day Saturday. The Gas Plant plays the Good Timers at 10 a.m., at 1 p.m. the Producers will meet the Tartans, at 4 p.m. will be the semi-finals, and at 7 p.m. on June 10 the finals will be played.

The Greased Pig Contest will get underway at 4 p.m. on Saturday and should prove to be quite an entertaining event. In the morning at 11 a.m. there will be a horse show. Also on Saturday night the draw for the motorcycle will be held in the Multi-plex and refreshments will be served.

CFCW will be on hand with their mobile unit Friday afternoon, and CHQT will cover activities Friday night and through until Saturday evening.

All games of chance will be run by the Redwater Kinsmen, and all proceeds from this year's carnival will go to pay for the sound system in the Multi-plex. Any information can be obtained from the Kinsmen booth on the fair grounds at the Multi-plex.

Get out and enjoy!

Balloon to visit Redwater carnival

Redwater residents will be skywatching at their Summer Carnival this weekend, if the whimsical weatherman lends his co-operation. The object of their scrutiny will be a colorful hot air balloon to be provided for the event by John Bauman at Aerial Promotions in St. Albert.

John and his balloon will be on the Redwater scene on Friday and Saturday, June 9 and 10, providing high winds don't interfere. Whether or not he will fly in the afternoon or evening will depend on weather conditions. On Saturday, the balloon will be on display and John will be available to talk with anyone interested in this unique pastime. He will be flying Saturday afternoon or early evening.

Mr. Bauman is no novice at the science of hot air ballooning. Last year, he won the Great Rocky Mountain Balloon Race at Billings, Montana and this year he will be heading down to Red Deer June 18-24 for the Canadian Ballooning Championships. Unfortunately, this year's race at Billings was rained out, so John was unable to repeat last year's triumph. He will also participate in the balloon race to be held at the Calgary Stampede.

Redwater Social Notes

By Marguerite Neufeld

We kind of botched the names of some of the cadets who formed the honor guard for the visit of the Premier. Instead of Victoria Gracait should have been Veronica Graca, and instead of Lorna Grimson, it should have been Judy Grimson. We also totally omitted mention of Brian Wall who also was part of the honor guard. Sorry.

The St. Clare's Parish would like to express their appreciation for the fine support the parents of the children attending religious instruction gave over the past year, and thanks to the adults involved in sharing the Word of God during the catechism year and to those involved in the preparation of Confirmation. The year end picnic was a tremendous success despite the cool weather, and a special thanks to the 12 cars and drivers who responded to the need.

After Mass this Saturday, everyone should gather in the church hall to celebrate Father Irwin's 24th anniversary of his ordination. Wine and cheese will be served, and if you are planning on attending, please notify Marilyn or Bert Martinoski as they would like to know what you are able to bring with you in the way of refreshments. (Phone 998-9194).

Also, this Sunday, a Mass will be held in recognition of all the children who have received their first Communion this spring. Any of the children prepared for their first Holy Communion, who have not yet received, will be receiving it this Sunday. Refreshments will be served after Mass.

NOTE: Everyone who is intending to take part in the celebrations this Sunday are encouraged to bring your children to the church this Wednesday at 2:30 p.m.

The St. Clare's Ladies Group - Redwater, will hold a bake sale at the church hall on Friday, June 16 from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. A wrought iron fern stand made and donated by Roger Belland will be raffled off at the bake sale. Tea and coffee will be served.

A museum tea will be held in the Golden Villa on Saturday, June 10 from 2 to 5 p.m. New displays have been added to the museum collection. Everyone is welcome.

Alcomdale 4H Beef Club

By Mark Davidson

Most of the Alcomdale 4H members, plus a few friends and ex-members and six adults turned out for the 4H highway clean-up. It didn't take quite as long this year as last to do our six miles. You would be surprised at some of the things that were found! We had a weiner roast in the evening at Sandy Lake. Thanks to the Bob Gillard family for the use of their cabin and lot. It was a cool evening but everyone had fun around the big fire.

The club held its regular meeting on May 8 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John (Sandy) Arlow. Roll call was "Why I Joined 4H". We made our final plans for our Achievement Day. The older boys were to make our display, some members were to work on sign boards and the club was to go cutting grass and cleaning-up on June 3 at Alcomdale picnic grounds. Judges were chosen for our "big day" and trucking arrangements decided.

Everyone is welcome to come to Alcomdale on June 11, Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock to see us show our animals and find out who the winners will be for this year. Show and sale will be in Edmonton the next day. Come and buy some good beef for your freezer.

Redwater soccer

Redwater has three children's soccer teams and they have already been quite active.

On May 17, the Mini-Mites tied it up one all in Gibbons, while the Mites beat out Morinville in Morinville 2 to 0, and the Pee-wees played Bon Accord in Redwater, losing 4 to 2.

On May 24, the Mini-Mites dumped Morinville 2 to 1 and the Pee-wees wiped out Morinville 6 to 1 in Redwater.

On May 31, the Mini-Mites went to Namao winning 5 to 1. The Mites beat Gibbons 3 to 2 in Redwater.

On June 7, all three teams are scheduled to play, the Mini-Mites will travel to Gibbons, the Mites will take on Gibbons in Redwater, and the Pee-wees will travel to Gibbons.

The pledge was led by Stacy Antoniuk and Colleen Zilinski. The main topic of discussion were plans for Achievement Day with posters to be put up in Legal and Bon Accord. All members are asked to be at the arena on Saturday, June 10 at 9 a.m. to help get ready for achievement day on Sunday. All books must be handed in no later than June 10. On Monday, June 12, club calves will be auctioned at the Edmonton Gardens at 2:30 p.m. Anyone interested in obtaining a good solid animal for the freezer and not able to attend the sale can give his/her bid to Taras or any club member for presentation on sale day. The young people appreciate your support. Please turn out for their Achievement Day on Sunday. This report was submitted by Club Reporter - Susan Abramski.

The bingo jackpot is now $300 in 56 numbers. The first bonanza was won by Mrs. H. Rudyk of Redwater, the second by Mrs. Jean Jensen of Bon Accord. Play bingo Sundays at 7 p.m. in the Bon Accord Community Centre.

You are reminded --

Bon Accord Imperials

(senior ladies) played tournament ball at Westlock over the weekend. Sixteen teams were involved. In the first round, the Imperials trounced Fort Assiniboine by 16-6, dealt a 17-8 blow to K.E.S. Turkeys from Edmonton and in the semi finals copped a 13-3 win over the Whitecourt Tomboys. Coming up against the Cherhill Angels in the finals, the girls lost their first game of the tournament, by an 8-5 score. However, coming second in a field of 16 is not bad and congratulations are extended to the Imperials and Coach Colin Samis. The girls will be playing tournament ball at Gibbons Agri-Fair on June 17 and 18. Only one home game is slated in the second half of the league schedule -- against Gibbons on Tuesday, June 13. Away games are scheduled for June 15, 22 and 29 at the Fort where games against Fort Legion, Fort Ladies and Graham Realty will be played at Bruderheim on June 20 and Lamont on July 4.

The combined parishes of St. Michael's, Gibbons, Bon Accord and Redwater will stage the annual congregational picnic at the Anglican Church in Gibbons on Sunday, June 11, following the 11 a.m. service. Bring a picnic lunch. In case of inclement weather, the picnic will be held in the community hall.

There are only three openings left for registrations of Tiny Tots. The deadline for registration is July 3. After the deadline an extra fee will be charged. Call Lois O'Brien, 921-3946 for registration. Tiny Tot mothers are still in need of children's records and toys -- Fisher-Price preferably. If you have either to spare they may be left with Val Tutton, 4723-49A Street, phone 921-3755. Articles for the Flea Market are still being sought, call Sandi Herd, 921-3610 or Marianne Miskolzie 921-3747 if you have donations acceptable for a Flea Market sale.

St. John's Ambulance Sturgeon area branch will be holding their annual meeting on June 12 at 8 p.m. in the Bon Accord Community Centre.

Air Cadets on Parade No. 524 Sturgeon Air Cadets

On Tuesday, May 30, cadets, parents and guests gathered at the Bon Accord Community Centre for the squadron's annual banquet. Cadets were inspected by the new Area Cadet Officer, Captain Don Fish.

Just before the meal, Mr. S. Russell, vice-chairman of the sponsoring committee, welcomed everyone and introduced the guests at the head table who were: WO2 F. Hutchings, emcee, OC Mike Noga, assistant supply officer; Colby McDonald, our league representative; Captain D. Fish, the new ACO and Mrs. Fish; Mr. E. N. "Brush" Miller, guest speaker; CO Captain J. McHardy and Mrs. McHardy; Lt. E. Mortimer, training officer and OC Joyce Porsild, administration officer.

The Reverend Sidney Vincent asked the blessing and Flt. Sgt. C. Hutchings proposed the toast to the Queen. At the conclusion of the meal, the applause was loud and long as the ladies of the Bon Accord ACW were thanked for the excellent roast beef dinner.

Sgt. D. Russell introduced the instructors present: Captain Snip Loblick, range officer; Wayne Wolfe, gliding and flying; Mr. and Mrs. C. Sullivan, swimming and scuba; Chris Ashcroft, drill; Brian McCrindle, bushcraft; Sgt. M. Ingle, parachute packing.

Sgt. Neil Porsild introduced the special guests: the Rev. Sidney Vincent of the United Church, Sgt. Murray Ingle, for his help, enthusiasm and genuine interest in each cadet and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Russell of Lucky Dollar Food, Gibbons, who have supported the squadron so generously.

A-Sgt. Trent McHardy introduced the executive of the sponsoring committee: Mrs. E. Hutchings, chairman; Mr. S. Russell, vice-chairman; Mrs. D. Noga, secretary treasurer and Mrs. Julie Saunders, publicity.

The guest speaker, Mr. E. N. "Brush" Miller spent 24 years in the forces and was in the ACO's office for three years. To cadets he said "It's not easy being a parent these days, as all young people are different, times have changed, etc., so have sympathy for your parents, they are doing their best."

To the parents he said "It's not easy to be a teen-ager, (loud applause from cadets!) 13 to 19 takes you from a boy or girl to young man or young lady. The changes over these years are tremendous. Cadets are subject to a lot of peer pressure and must be strong in their own personal convictions to stick out the training."

Mr. Miller commented on the improvement evident in the squadron, due in part to the dedicated officers, and he congratulated cadets on the best turnout he's ever seen in this squadron.

Sgt. M. Graca thanked Mr. Miller and presented him with a gift which gave him and the audience a chuckle as Cpl. A. Saunders and A-Cpl. J. McColeman brought in a cage containing a pair of guinea fowl for his farm.

The next speaker, Rev. Vincent encouraged the cadets that even living in a world beset with problems, there is an answer. Each of us can build with truth, honesty and the like, a good moral life. He quoted a short prayer with the hope that the cadets would carry its thought with them, and they would find life very worth living.

Captain Don Fish explained the beginnings of the air cadet movement and about its aims. He told cadets that with dedication, a boy or girl can achieve a great many benefits in belonging to the air cadets.

On behalf of the Provincial League, Colby McDonald congratulated the squadron on its fine showing and tremendous improvement this year. He presented A-Cpl. J. McColeman and A-Sgt. T. McHardy with cheques because they were the top Hawaiian draw ticket sellers in the squadron. He also presented a cheque for $110 to Mrs. Hutchings from the Amalgamated Credit Union.

Mrs. D. Noga presented the treasurer's report with the good news that we have a very healthy bank balance at this year's end.

The CO Captain McHardy introduced the four scholarship winners, Flt. Sgt. C. Hutchings - Exchange, A-Sgt. T. McHardy - Senior Leaders, Sgt. M. Graca - Technical Training and A-Cpl. J. McColeman - Gliding.

He also announced those fortunate cadets who will be going to camp this summer. They are AC Graham Kiriaka and AC David Melville - Basic Training, A-Cpl. Doug McHardy - Systems, LAC Darlene Lange - Photography, A-Cpl. David Milligan and A-Cpl. Cathy Wood - Junior NCO.

Special awards announced were: Most improved junior cadet to AC Brian Wall presented by Captain Loblick; Most improved senior cadet to A-Cpl. Annette Pyle presented by Mrs. Hutchings. Most outstanding junior cadet to AC G. Kiriaka presented by Mrs. Noga; most outstanding senior cadet to WO2 F. Hutchings presented by Captain McHardy, most proficient NCO to A-Sgt. T. McHardy presented by Captain Fish.

Those cadets who had earned perfect attendance pins were presented with them.

Lt. Mortimer, training officer acknowledged the assistance of many instructors who came for one or more nights and the various types of instruction given.

WO2 Fred Hutchings gave special mention to Cpl. A. Saunders and A-Cpl. D. McHardy for their efforts in fund-raising as they were the two top cadets in selling chocolates.

Captain J. McHardy rose to thank the sponsoring committee for all their help and he also thanked each cadet for their effort during the past year.

On Saturday, June 3, the squadron attended a dance to celebrate the ending of the cadet year. On Sunday afternoon the Porsilds invited all the cadets and their families to their farm, where

Letter to the editor

I am so very grateful, to now (so far) breath again and open windows to receive clean air. And I am certain others with respiratory problems and allergies are as well.

But another much greater problem faces a great mother - my mom. She lives her contented, cheerful life as independent as anyone could be.

And her home will remain 'as is', as long as she needs it. She's 83 now.

That water tank will no longer supply the small needs for dishwashing or cleaning her home. That's all she needs as my brother brings drinking water from the farm.

After her years there (over 50 of them) surely a pipe with one of the new frost-proof valves could be installed. A standing pipe could go into the coal shed.

She's always paid taxes, she's got no electricity and never polluted any river.

My mom is a landmark in these modern times.

In spite of a crippled hip, she can still swing a 'bloody good' axe! She could out-swing many a man too.

Her plate of freshly made doughnuts and her shortbread are always there, when anyone calls. Her tea pot is always filled.

If that tank goes what do they expect her to do?

She lives in peace and contentment there, with her coal oil lamps and her wood they played ball and other games and had a weiner roast.

Our thanks go to the Porsilds for a most enjoyable time.

Water problem

and coal stove.

Activities, she says, keep her tough. She isn't one who could ever sit around twiddling her thumbs or running to teas. She minds her own business and likes everyone.

What do they expect? You can't catch rain water in winter.

She's a landmark here at Gibbons and has more damned commonsense than anyone, (all who know her would attest to that).

Find a way for her water supply. She's staying just as she is.

I'm proud of her independence. So if she wishes to stay as she is -- I expect Gibbons Town owes her this at least.

The world needs people like our "Mom". Water can be got to her and it better be so.

Bon Accord Hotel

scene of anniversary celebration

Anniversary time rolls around again at the Bon Accord Hotel and a grand celebration is in order! On June 10, Don and Liz Grant have an All Day Jamboree planned featuring the popular Western band Tobacco Road and seven other orchestras.

Over the past year and a half, the Bon Accord Hotel has received extensive face-lifting. Additional rooms were added and the original rooms were completely renovated. The Harvester Restaurant was totally revamped and now offers diversified service in a beautiful rustic setting, featuring a licensed dining lounge.

Ducky's Tavern has added a dance floor and an attractive games room in a rumpus room setting, complete with fireplace. The games room features three pool tables, a shuffleboard and various electronic games.

The most recent reason to celebrate has been the recent paving of the parking lot. Standard General Construction Ltd. of St. Albert was awarded the contract for approximately 55,000 sq. ft. of "hot" commercial paving on May 2, 1978. Fortunately, the weatherman co-operated and the work was completed in a couple of days, all ready for the anniversary celebrations. No more mud and gravel, the new pavement surrounds the entire hotel including the back service lane. A number of patrons have already praised the new parking facilities.

The Village of Bon Accord will be paving the access service road paralleling highway 28 which serves the hotel, the garages and Bon Accord Building Supplies, sometime in the future.

So if you have nothing planned for the weekend, drop out to the Bon Accord Hotel, where friends all meet.

We'll give you maximum space for your money.

There are some very good reasons why the Farmstead I building outsells all other steel farm buildings in North America.

Low design cost. Ease of erection. Choice of colours. Accessories.

But basically it comes down to space. Fact is, Farmstead I provides maximum usable space. Compare it with culvert or arch type building in its size range.

Its huge doors can handle all farm machinery. And its sturdy frame can withstand grain piled 5 feet high against the wall.

As your local Butler Agri-Builder we'd be pleased to introduce you to the new economics of inner space.

This Weeks Special

40' x 72' x 14' Farmstead I with 20' x 14' ft. double slide door on 24" x 10" grade beam, erected in your yard for only $11,800.00.

PAVING THE WAY

... Mr. Don Grant stands in front of the Bon Accord Hotel, which will be the scene of an anniversary celebration this weekend. The reason for the photo is that Gazette photographer, Bob Coles, dropped by Ducky's Tavern to check on the recent upgrading of the parking lot which was recently paved, much to the delight of the many patrons of the hotel.
